HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

There is a LOT of information about Disney food and dining options out there, but we've broken down some of the key details you need to know to make the best dining choices for your group. So, let's dive in!

First, you'll notice that we have a smattering of symbols at the top of the restaurant and other dining location pages. These are quick indicators of what you need to know. Most of them are self-explanatory, but we'll give you a rapid rundown of them.

DISNEY DINING PLAN ACCEPTED

- This indicates that the restaurant accepts credits from the Disney Dining Plan. IMPORTANT: The location might accept Snack Credits, Table Service credits, Quick Service credits, or a mix. This symbol only indicates that the location accepts some form of Disney Dining Plan credits, but you'll want to verify what type of credits are accepted, how many might be needed, and if there are any specific restrictions as to what dishes qualify.
- For an in-depth look at the Disney Dining Plan, check out our entire guide dedicated solely to the Dining Plan and how to make the best use of it.

DISNEY FOOD BLOG GUIDE insider TIPS

For locations accepting Mobile Order via the My Disney Experience app, use the app to create a sample mobile order. That can let you see what might qualify as a snack credit on the Disney Dining Plan.

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

$ PRICING SCALE

If you're paying out of pocket, this will help you know approximately how much to budget if you plan to dine at this location.

- $ – $14.99 and under per adult
- $$ – $15-$34.99 per adult
- $$$ – $35-$59.99 per adult
- $$$$ – over $60 per adult

DFB FAVORITE

We've eaten it ALL, and there are some spots we keep coming back to because they are just THAT GOOD! If you want to know our favorites, be on the lookout for this symbol. Keep in mind that while restaurants marked with this symbol might be our favorites, that doesn't mean that the other restaurants are bad. Other spots might have some seriously delicious eats, too! Or those other spots might have more standard eats that are just what your group needs. It's all about finding what suits you best. We've got our favorites, but we can't wait to hear all about yours.

CHARACTER MEAL

Dining with the characters is a unique and quintessential Disney World vacation experience.

MOBILE ORDER

Mobile Order allows you to pre-order and pre-pay for your food via the My Disney Experience app (which you'll use on your mobile device) for participating Quick Service restaurants around Disney World.

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

SERVICE TYPE

Disney offers three primary dining service types: Snack, Quick Service, and Table Service.

Snack: This is the category for those little carts or kiosks you'll find around the parks. Think popcorn or ice cream carts. Expect little to no dedicated seating near these. Plan to eat on a nearby bench or walk as you snack! Some may be cashless locations.

Quick Service: For these spots, you'll order at a counter (or on your mobile device), collect your food, and seat yourself. Think fast food, but Disney-fied. Seating can vary - sometimes there's ample seating (indoors and/or outdoors). Other times, seating is more limited. Look for our indications throughout this guide of what seating is like at each Quick Service spot.

Table Service: At these restaurants, you'll be seated for your meal and waited on by servers. This service type includes buffets, character meals, and fancy signature dining spots. Seating for these is typically indoors, though some spots may also offer outdoor seating.

DISCOUNTS

Some restaurants offer discounts if you are a member of a certain group. Those discounts tend to range from 10%-20%. There may be restrictions on the discounts in terms of what is included, whether it applies to only one meal time or another, and whether there are blockout dates. You can check the Disney World, Annual Passholder, Disney Vacation Club, and Disney Visa websites for details. The red tags indicate which groups get discounts at these locations:

DVC: Disney Vacation Club members

AP: Annual Passholders

DV: Disney Visa Cardholders

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

MEAL TIMES AVAILABLE

Not every location is open for every meal. We'll indicate which meal each location serves with these letters:

B Breakfast (we'll use this for any spot that is open any time before 11 AM)

L Lunch (we'll use this for any spot that is open between 11 AM and 4 PM)

D Dinner (we'll use this for any spot that is open 4 PM and on)

Some restaurants may serve brunch (every day or only on select days) in addition to other meals (especially over at Disney Springs). We have not specifically noted brunch in these icons, but it's something to keep in mind. You'll typically find notes about brunch in our pro tips or menu highlights sections! You'll want to check the Disney World website or the My Disney Experience app for updates.

Advance Dining Reservation (ADR) Rating

1 2 3 4 5

Dining reservations are strongly recommended for all Table Service locations at Disney World, and some are more challenging to secure than others. We've ranked each Table Service location from 1-5 with color coding, with 1 being the hardest to get and 5 being the easiest to get.

Now, you're a master at using this book to its fullest potential! Let's get planning!

TABLE SERVICE

TABLE SERVICE RESTAURANTS

Table Service refers to a restaurant where you are seated by a host and served by waitstaff.

Table Service restaurants encompass a variety of dining options, including:

- Signature Dining (Fine Dining)
- Character Dining (Meet Disney Characters while you eat)
- Buffets/Family-Style Meals (All you care to enjoy)
- More Standard, Plated Options

Reservations are highly recommended for these spots and can fill up FAST for popular locations. Book reservations up to 60 days in advance via the My Disney Experience app or website. You can also call (407) 939-3463.

Be mindful of the cancelation policies. Most will charge a $10 per person fee if you cancel less than 2 hours in advance. However, some restaurants may have different cancelation policies. Look at those carefully when booking.

Table Service meals all feature indoor seating, though select spots may offer limited patio dining as well.

Since you'll have a server, it is customary to leave a gratuity, so factor that into your budget.

AKERSHUS ROYAL BANQUET HALL

dp $$$$ AP DVC BLD 3

Akershus Royal Banquet Hall is one of the best-kept secrets in EPCOT! The big draw is that this is a character meal for breakfast, lunch, and dinner featuring several Disney Princesses. Characters can rotate, but we've seen Snow White, Jasmine, Belle, Tiana, Aurora, and Ariel in the past. Food is served in all-you-care-to-enjoy family-style platters featuring traditional Norwegian fare with a few more standard eats mixed in. The meal can be pricey, but if you want a princess character meal, this is something worth considering!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The food here is decent, but the princesses are the real draw.
- Breakfast usually includes pastries, eggs, Norwegian waffles, and more
- Lunch/dinner usually includes Norwegian meatballs, mashed potatoes, mac and cheese, and more
- Things we've enjoyed: Norwegian Waffles, Potato Casserole, Lefse with Cinnamon Butter, Shrimp Salad, Norwegian Meatballs, Rice pudding with Strawberry Sauce, Airle Cake Pop

PRO TIPS

- Breakfast is cheaper ($$$) and only 1 Table Service credit on the Dining Plan, while lunch/dinner are pricier ($$$$) and cost 2 Table Service credits per person. Breakfast might be safer for picky eaters.

BIERGARTEN

$$$ AP DV DVC LD 4

Celebrate Oktoberfest all year long at Biergarten in EPCOT's Germany Pavilion! This lively and entertaining spot serves up traditional German cuisine in buffet form, accompanied by live music. Dine in an indoor "biergarten" as German drinking songs play while you eat. Long, wooden tables are arranged with a view of the stage, and you can even get down and boogie on the dance floor! If you've got SUPER picky eaters or want a quiet meal, this might not be a good choice. But if you're looking for a restaurant that offers dinner and a show, and you want a buffet with plenty of delicious eats, this is a good spot to visit!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu features traditional German Cuisine served buffet-style
- Expect a hearty meal of sausages, spätzle, schnitzel, sauerkraut, and assorted desserts. Oh, and liters of beer. Yes, LITERS.
- Things we've enjoyed: Pretzel Roll, Roasted Chicken, Meatballs, Nudel Gratin, Apple Strudel, Salted Caramel Cheesecake Bite,  Warsteiner Dunkel

PRO TIPS

- Seating is family-style. Expect to sit with another party at the table unless you've got a big group.
- The entertainment here can get quite loud – it's a fun and lively.
- Want a fun non-alcoholic drink? Try the German Spezi – a mix of Coca-Cola and Fanta Orange!

LE CELLIER STEAKHOUSE

$$$ AP DV DVC LD 2

Le Cellier Steakhouse is a popular spot. It has a cozy atmosphere that makes you feel like you're in a wine cellar, and it is often a welcome respite from the chaos of the parks. Lunch reservations may be easier to snag, so consider that option. Le Cellier is a signature restaurant, however, which means it is EXPENSIVE, and sometimes the portions don't necessarily reflect the high cost. But if you're after a good steak, an amazing cheddar cheese soup, and a relaxing atmosphere, you'll find that all right here!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The steaks here are great, and the appetizers are innovative and hearty.
- You'll find chicken, seafood, and plant-based options here too, but the steak is the bigger draw.
- Things we've enjoyed: Canadian Cheddar Cheese Soup, Signature Poutine, Filet Mignon, "Banana Split," Maple Creme Brulee, complimentary pretzel breadsticks (delicious!), Crispy Brussels sprouts
- Grab a sauce to go with your steak - there are a few different options.
- The Roasted Cauliflower "Steak" is a great vegetarian option.

PRO TIPS

- Reservations here can be difficult to get - book early. Check if there's availability via Walk-Up Waitlist.
- Both lunch and dinner require 2 Table Service credits on the Disney Dining Plan.

CHEFS DE FRANCE

$$ · AP · DVC · LD · 3

Chefs de France is modeled after an authentic Parisian bistro and features traditional fare like French onion soup, escargot, and more – plus there are some dishes for the less adventurous, too, like baked macaroni and cheese. This spot is less formal and less expensive than its neighbor, Monsieur Paul, but it's still delicious and remains a top choice for us! Not only is the food here excellent, but the service is as well. If you're a fan of French food and want a relaxing meal, this can be a great choice.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Authentic French Bistro featuring everything from French onion soup and seared salmon to ratatouille, escargot, and crème brulée
- Order a la carte OR opt for a prix fixe option (includes appetizer, entree, dessert, and drink).
- Large wine menu, plus cocktails & beer
- Things we've enjoyed: Gratin de Macaroni, French Onion Soup, Boeuf Bourguignon, Escargot, Crème Brulée, Poulet Cordon Bleu

PRO TIPS

- Request a table by the windows for some excellent World Showcase people-watching, or ask to sit in the back room with soaring ceilings.
- A Parisian Breakfast buffet has been offered here during the Food & Wine Festival. See if any special offerings are available when you visit.

CORAL REEF RESTAURANT

Important! Coral Reef Restaurant will be temporarily CLOSED starting September 8th, 2026. It is expected to reopen later in 2026. You don't get the chance to dine next to a giant aquarium every day – and that's definitely the main draw here! The food can be expensive for what it is, and it isn't the highlight of the experience. If you want food that'll WOW you, you'll want to look elsewhere. But the atmosphere is incredibly unique and can be a big hit with kiddos. Massive picture windows will let you peek into the giant Living Seas aquarium, and you might even see a sea turtle or shark swim by!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu can change based on what is seasonally available
- Menu mainly features seafood with a few other options like chicken and steak
- Look for unique-to-this-spot-themed cocktails
- Things we've enjoyed: Coconut Fried Shrimp, Surf and Turf, Lobster Bisque (when available), Pineapple-Coconut Bread and Plantain Chips, Chocolate Mousse Bar

PRO TIPS

- You can ask for a table by the aquarium when you check in, but the seating is tiered, so there are decent views from all around.
- This can be a long meal, so work that extra time into your plans.

LA CRÊPERIE DE PARIS

$$ AP DVC BLD 5

La Crêperie de Paris serves…well…crêpes! You'll find both savory crêpes (galettes) and sweet crêpes. The buckwheat flour for the galettes is flown in from France, giving an authentic feel. Choose from a la carte options or opt for the prix fixe menu. In our experience, both the food and service are great, but the prices can be a little high for what you get, though the prix fixe menu can be a good deal. It doesn't stand out as much as other restaurants in EPCOT, but if you love crêpes and want a relaxing meal, this can be a good fit!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- French Casual Dining – includes soups, salads, savory crêpes, and sweet crêpes
- There's a selection of French wines, ciders, and beer available, along with a French Martini.
- Things we've enjoyed: Melba Crêpe (though the syrupy fruits can be a bit much for some), Gourmande Crêpe, Banane Crêpe, Saumon Galette, Chèvre Galette, Salade Maison, Burger Breton
- The sweet cider tastes like a sparkling apple juice – great for those who like a sweet drink. Pomme Crepe

PRO TIPS

- You can add a shot of Grand Marnier, Rhum, or Calvados to any sweet crêpe.
- The prix fixe menu includes a soup or salad, one galette, one glass of hard cider, soda, or juice, and one dessert crêpe. It can be a good deal if you're really hungry, LOVE crêpes, and have a big appetite, but it might be too much food for light eaters.
- It can seem loud because of how the space echoes.
- Stop by the Crêpes À Emporter walk-up window attached to this restaurant for crepes on the go.

GARDEN GRILL RESTAURANT

DP $$$$ AP DVC BLD 3

Garden Grill Restaurant is a DFB favorite spot and one of our top character meals in ALL of Disney World! The all-you-can-eat feast is served family-style in skillets during breakfast, lunch, and dinner. The food is consistently well-prepared, and some dishes are especially delicious. What makes Garden Grill really special is that it slowly ROTATES while you're eating, giving you a view of scenes from the Living with the Land ride! Expect to see Chip 'n' Dale, plus Farmer Mickey and Pluto during your time here. This is a great choice if you want a slower, more relaxed meal with characters + fresh items that aren't super heavy.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Expect eggs, Mickey waffles, fruit, grilled steak, and more at breakfast
- Expect cornbread, salad, steak, turkey, various sides, and dessert at lunch and dinner
- Things we've enjoyed: Backyard grilled steak with Chimichurri sauce, Macaroni and Cheese, Mashed potatoes (Lunch/Dinner), Cinnamon Bread, Steak, Mickey Waffles, Legacy Mimosa (Breakfast)

PRO TIPS

- Breakfast ($$$) is cheaper than lunch/dinner ($$$$). All are 1 Table Service credit on the Dining Plan.
- Booths on the lower level offer the best view.
- Character experience is more relaxed than in other places.
- Ask for POG (passion-fruit, orange, guava) juice at breakfast.
- Plant-based menu available

LA HACIENDA DE SAN ANGEL

$$ · AP · DVC · D · 2

La Hacienda de San Angel serves authentic, upscale Mexican cuisine. The restaurant offers incredible views of the World Showcase Lagoon from large, floor-to-ceiling windows, making it a popular dinner spot during fireworks. Appetizers and margaritas are the stars of the show here, but you'll find heartier dishes often featuring chicken, poblano peppers, shrimp, carne asada, and more. If you want high-quality Mexican food and something a little off the beaten path, this is a good place to visit.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Authentic Mexican Cuisine, featuring a variety of dishes – from guacamole and queso fundido to tacos and more
- You can get some margaritas, including the Avocado Margarita from La Cava del Tequila here.
- Things we've enjoyed: Queso Fundido, Alambre de Res, Tacos de Camarones, Beef Brisket Tacos, Esquites, Pan de Elotes Tres Leches
- The Flautas are good too - easy to share with a friend!

PRO TIPS

- If you want to score a table by a window for fireworks views, check in for your reservation EARLY and be prepared to wait.
- Reservations can fill up QUICKLY for dinner times during fireworks.
- During lunch, the dining room may be used as seating for the Quick Service location next door.

MONSIEUR PAUL

$$$$ D 3

Monsieur Paul offers one of the most upscale dining experiences in Disney World, tucked above Chefs de France. With a prix fixe menu priced around $195 per adult, it's a splurge, but it could be good for special occasions. The multi-course meal usually includes a welcome drink, appetizer, fish, meat, cheese, dessert, and more, all served in a quiet, elegant setting. Add in excellent service and a lovely view of World Showcase, and you've got a truly memorable night out. The menu items can push you outside your comfort zone, so it may not be a good spot for picky eaters. But if you want a fancy meal with French cuisine and more adventurous eats, it's a place to consider.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Upscale French cuisine that often features soups, salads, escargot, meats, seafood, cheese, and desserts.
- A caviar pairing is sometimes available.
- Things we've enjoyed: Cassolette d'escargot, Coquilles Saint Jacques (seared scallops)

PRO TIPS

- Request a seat by a window for fireworks views.
- There is a dress code.
- You must be 10 or older to dine here.
- Typically closed Sunday & Monday.
- Cancel at least 72 hours in advance to avoid fees.

NINE DRAGONS

DDP $$ AP DVC LD 5

Nine Dragons is a step above your local Chinese restaurant, but maybe not too far. The atmosphere here is lovely, with dark wood accents and rich, warm colors. You'll find specialties from multiple regions, including Cantonese, Mongolian, Szechuan, Hunan, and Kiangche-style dishes. We've had mixed experiences here. On some visits, we've had some really good dishes, but compared to other spots in World Showcase, it isn't nearly as unique. But if you're a BIG fan of Chinese food, want big portions, or want a quiet restaurant to take a break from the crowds, this could be one to consider.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Chinese cuisine with some dishes that are likely familiar to you (like pot stickers or vegetable spring rolls)
- There are also some more adventurous things like Glazed Prawns with Pistachios.
- Picky eaters and kids enjoy dishes like Honey Sesame Chicken or Fried Rice.
- Things we've enjoyed: Kowloon Spare Ribs, Sichuan Shui Zhu Beef, Wontons in Chili Oil, Kung Pao Duo (has a bit of a kick!), Dragon Fruit Frozen

PRO TIPS

- Ask for a table by the bigger windows if you want a nice view of World Showcase.
- Check out the 9 gorgeous glass dragon figures in the main dining room.
- Sometimes, specially priced lunch specials may be offered, check to see what's available!

Important! As of the latest updates to this guide, Restaurant Marrakesh is NOT operating as a traditional restaurant. Instead, it is often used as a lounge space during EPCOT festivals or for select guests during other times. Stay tuned for updates.

Restaurant Marrakesh (when open as a true restaurant) can be one of EPCOT's most interesting restaurants, serving authentic Moroccan food in a lively setting. Unique dishes and entertainment in the form of belly dancers and live musicians, all presented in a truly beautiful setting, make this place stand out.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- When it operated as a restaurant, it featured Moroccan dishes
- Typically, picky eaters could look at the menu out front (featuring pictures of the dishes) to get an idea of what was served here and whether anything would fit their needs.
- Things we enjoyed: Seafood and Chicken Bastilla, Beef Brewat Rolls, Harira Soup, Shish Kebab, Couscous dishes, Baklava, Warm Beignets and Sweet Cream, Mint Tea

PRO TIPS

- As of press time, Restaurant Marrakesh is not serving food but is often used as a lounge area to relax and take a seat in some cold air-conditioning. You may even find some complimentary beverages or crafts, too.

ROSE & CROWN DINING ROOM

DDP $$ AP DV DVC D 3

Rose & Crown Dining Room is a favorite for both fans and the DFB team – and for good reason. With its cozy, pub-like atmosphere, it offers a relaxed taste of Britain right in the heart of EPCOT. The food menu is small but mighty, featuring classics like shepherd's pie and fish and chips, while the drink list is impressively long, with plenty of beer and signature sips like Pimm's Cups. One of the biggest draws is the waterside patio, which offers a fantastic view of the fireworks. The restaurant can be a bit noisy, but if you want a hearty meal with generous portion sizes and an authentic English pub experience, stop on by!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Traditional British dishes that are hearty and filling.
- The food menu here is EXTREMELY small due to changes made in recent years. Read through the menu carefully to make sure they've got something you'll like.
- Things we've enjoyed: Scotch Egg, Fish and Chips, Bangers and Mash, Cottage Pie, Savory Impossible Hot Pot (when available), Sticky Toffee Pudding, Chocolate Caterpillar Cake (especially great for kiddos!)

PRO TIPS

- There is a Mobile Walk Up Waitlist you may be able to join on less busy park days.
- The Rose & Crown Pub is next door if you just want a drink.
- Book the Rose & Crown Fireworks Dining Package for guaranteed fireworks views.
- Visit the nearby Yorkshire County Fish Shop to get fish & chips quickly and at a cheaper price.

San Angel Inn Restaurante is tucked away in the back of the Mexico Pavilion pyramid. The big draw here is the restaurant's riverside location, with views into the Gran Fiesta Tour ride, creating a unique experience. You'll feel like you're dining outside in a vibrant Mexican village. Experience elevated, authentic Mexican dining here. The food may not be as unique as some other spots in World Showcase, but during a recent trip there, we were BLOWN AWAY by the quality and flavors of the food we tried. If you want a spot with beautiful views and solid Mexican eats, it's one to consider! The atmosphere alone can make this experience worth trying.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Authentic Mexican cuisine. You'll find a variety of dishes – from guacamole and quesadillas to tacos, enchiladas, and more.
- You can order some of La Cava del Tequila's famous margaritas here, including the Avocado Margarita.
- Things we've enjoyed: Tostadas de Pollo, Pollo a Las Rajas, Ribeye Tacos, Gordita, Arrachera Wagyu, Queso Fundido, Pan de Elote Tres Leches, Margaritas, Clasica Margarita (a safe choice)

SHIKI-SAI: SUSHI IZAKAYA

$$ LD 4

Shiki-Sai: Sushi Izakaya is all about shareable small plates – but don't let that fool you into thinking it's a light meal. Come hungry - there's plenty to enjoy! Perched on the second floor above the Mitsukoshi Department Store, this spot boasts gorgeous views, especially great if you time your reservation with the fireworks. While sushi takes center stage, the menu has a wide variety of Japanese favorites, including gyoza, udon, shrimp tempura, and more. If you want a unique dining experience with high-quality dishes, fresh & flavorful options, and great service, or you just REALLY love sushi, consider stopping by.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The menu is LARGE and typically features nigiri, sashimi, rolls, tempura, Wagyu, rice, noodles, desserts, & more. You'll also find sake, shochu, specialty cocktails, and nonalcoholic drinks.
- Menu & decor change to represent different Japanese festivals.
- Things we've enjoyed: Grilled Wagyu Gyoza, Ishiyaki Rice, Vegetable Udon, Cocktail Flight (especially Tokyo Sunset), Tokyo Negi Roll, Agedashi Tofu, Takoyaki
- The sushi boat is incredibly expensive ($300!) but also had some of the best sushi we've had in Disney World.

PRO TIPS

- Prix fixe menu utilized when you're using the Disney Dining Plan.
- Ask for a seat at the windows to view EPCOT below. Or get a seat with a digital window display - those are so fun and even show digital fireworks!
- To secure fireworks views, book a dining package – bookings open Aug 27th, 2026.

SPACE 220

$$$$ | DVC | AP | LD | 1

Space 220 is a futuristic restaurant that simulates a meal in a space station 220 miles above EPCOT! Board the “Stellavator” (elevator) that simulates a real-time launch and “travel” to the Centauri Space Station. Diners can take in both daytime and nighttime views of Earth thanks to a panoramic view of space. This immersive restaurant is incredibly popular. We’ve loved some dishes and been unimpressed with others. You’ll find more exotic eats elsewhere in EPCOT. But the themed experience alone might make it a must-do for you!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Prix fixe menu - appetizer & entree at lunch ($$$); appetizer, entree & dessert at dinner ($$$$) serving upscale global cuisine with things like fried cauliflower, fried calamari, salmon, chicken, steak, and more
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Blue Moon Cauliflower, Filet Mignon, Steak & Frites, Roasted Carrots, Lobster Stuffed with Crab, Carrot Cake

PRO TIPS

- Ask about the trading cards.
- Some items are exclusive to one meal time: review menus carefully.
- Lounge option available with a limited a la carte menu of its own that ALSO requires reservations. Or you can stop by the bar - first-come, first-served.

SPICE ROAD TABLE

DDP $$ AP DV LD 3

Spice Road Table serves up shareable Mediterranean-inspired small plates in a beautiful waterfront setting. Inside, floor-to-ceiling windows frame views of World Showcase Lagoon, while the outdoor patio offers some of the best seats for fireworks. The menu is flavorful and a bit more adventurous than typical theme park fare, which may not suit every palate. The menu is also fairly small and made up entirely of small plates, so if you sample a variety of dishes to build a full meal, the bill can add up quickly. But if you want lighter dishes with Mediterranean flavors and you want a relaxing meal, consider visiting!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Moroccan and Mediterranean-inspired small plates like hummus and olives, meats, and more.
- Wine from the Mediterranean region, signature cocktails, and nonalcoholic drinks
- Things we've enjoyed: House-made Hummus Fries, Naan Spreads (Spice Road Table Bread Service), Spiced Lamb Kefta, Dessert Platter

PRO TIPS

- There's a walk-up to-go bar just inside the entrance if you want to stop in and grab a quick drink.
- Book the Spice Road Table Fireworks Dining Package if you want to guarantee a good view.

TAKUMI-TEI

$$$$ | D | 3

Takumi-Tei is one of the most extravagant and EXPENSIVE dining experiences in Disney World, we're talking $250 per person! This is largely due to its omakase ("leave it up to the chef") multi-course meals. Some items are entirely left to the chef and depend on the season. If you've got picky eaters in the group, this is not the best match. Plus, the meal is made of many courses and can take at least a few hours. But if you love Japanese food, are willing to spend the money, and are an adventurous eater, this can be worth it since this is some of the best sushi and service you'll have anywhere on Disney property!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- There is an omnivorous option and a vegetarian option.
- You can opt for a full course for $250, or a semi-course for $150 – the semi-course has smaller portions of similar things in the full course
- Menu includes things like soup, sashimi, a rice dish, matcha, and more
- Sake, specialty cocktails, nonalcoholic drinks, beer, and wine are available
- Things we've enjoyed: Sushi, Lobster Tempura, Sashimi with seasonal fish, Japanese A5 Wagyu steak, Vegetable Tempura

PRO TIPS

- There is a dress code, and you must be 8 years old and above to dine here.
- Reserve the Water Room for private dining for a small group.

TEPPAN EDO

$$ AP DVC LD 4

If you enjoy a hibachi experience, Teppan Edo is the place for you! Expect a fun show where your food is cooked right in front of you. While the food is good and the experience is fun, you won't find a whole lot of difference from your local hibachi spot. If it's something unique you're after, you may want to try something else in EPCOT. But our meals here have been good, and it's a great place for larger families, though smaller parties may be seated with others.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Entree options usually include steak, chicken, seafood, and veggies. Entrees come with a salad, noodles, vegetables, and white rice. Appetizers, sushi, and dessert are also available. And don't forget your sake or sake cocktail.
- Use the sauces on the table to add more flavor to your meal.
- Things we've enjoyed: Teppanyaki Steak and Chicken, Violet Sake

PRO TIPS

- Unless you have a huge party, you'll be seated with other people at your table.
- Things can get loud in here!
- Chefs put on a wonderful show.
- This isn't a meal you can rush through, so make sure you have plenty of time to sit and enjoy.

TUTTO ITALIA RISTORANTE

$$ · AP · DVC · LD · 2

Tutto Italia is a sophisticated restaurant tucked away in the Italy Pavilion, and it's home to some delicious eats. You will generally be able to find some of your favorite pasta dishes here, along with seafood, meats, vegetables, and of course, cannoli! If you're looking for an Italian dining experience with a fancier atmosphere in EPCOT, consider booking a table here. Prices can be high, but the eats are hearty, portions are typically on the larger side, the atmosphere is warm and cozy, and it's some of the better Italian food in Disney World.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Upscale Italian cuisine including things like Caprese salad, pasta e fagioli, steak, short rib, salmon, swordfish, and pasta like fettuccine alfredo, spaghetti, and lasagna bolognese.
- Picky eaters and kids can likely find "safer" dishes to eat here like spaghetti and chicken tenders.
- Things we've enjoyed: Calamari Fritti, Tortino Di Melanze, Italicus Spritz, Bellini
- Check to see if a Prix Fixe option is available. It can be a fantastic deal for a solid, filling meal.

PRO TIPS

- Book a table in the cozy dining room or opt for some al fresco dining and people-watching on the patio. The atmosphere makes this a great spot for a date night.
- You can also stop by Tutto Gusto, the small wine cellar next door, for drinks and order from the Tutto Italia restaurant menu. Tutto Gusto is first-come, first-served.

VIA NAPOLI RISTORANTE E PIZZERIA

$$ AP DVC LD 2

If you're after some authentic Neapolitan, wood-fired pizzas, Via Napoli is where you want to be. It's a delicious escape from the World Showcase crowds, tucked away in the back of the Italy Pavilion. You can also find pasta and meat dishes on the menu that would likely make any fan of Italian food happy. The pizza here is the big draw though, and it is seriously fantastic. While it can be pricey, you can order a LARGE pizza here that can be a great value for families or groups.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Italian eats – pizza is the star, but you'll also find small plates like fried calamari, salads, pasta, classics like chicken parmesan, and more
- Pizzas are available in individual, large, and mezzo metro (½ meter in length!) sizes
- Things we've enjoyed: Calamari Fritti, Quattro Formaggi Pizza, Margherita Pizza, Prosciutto e Melone Pizza, Carciofi Pizza, Chicken Parmesan

PRO TIPS

- The water used to make the pizza dough is sourced from a spring similar to Italy's Campania region.
- The pizza ovens are named after 3 volcanoes in Italy – Vesuvio, Etna, and Stromboli.
- Use multiple credits on the Dining Plan to get a larger pizza to share.

QUICK SERVICE

QUICK SERVICE RESTAURANTS

Disney World Quick Service restaurants (also called Counter Service) offer fast, convenient, and less expensive meals without requiring reservations.

You can generally order in person at a counter or via Mobile Order through the My Disney Experience app (where available). Then, you'll receive your meal on a tray and take it to your seat.

Options can range from traditional fast food to more unique, high-quality dishes. Sometimes these locations are fairly small and serve a limited menu. Other times they're much larger with more seating and menu options – it just depends!

Seating is typically first-come, first-served. On hot and tiring Disney days, when folks can linger at indoor tables in AC for quite a while, you may have to wait a little bit for a seat in your desired area.

Some spots have ample indoor seating, like Sunshine Seasons and Connections Eatery. Others have limited indoor seating or only offer outdoor seating. In those cases, you may need to wait a bit longer for a table or plan to eat your food in another spot nearby with more seating.

LA CANTINA DE SAN ANGEL

DVC LD

AMPLE OUTDOOR SEATING

If you're after some quick Mexican food in EPCOT, La Cantina de San Angel might be just the thing! This outdoor restaurant serves familiar Mexican dishes like tacos, nachos, guacamole, queso, and margaritas. And, if you time things right, you might even get a pretty good view of the EPCOT fireworks! It's not the most exotic menu, but still might be a tougher option for really picky eaters or those looking for a really HEFTY meal. But if you love tacos and want a little bit of an adventure, this can be a good fit!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Grab a side of "Nacho Cheese" (a.k.a. QUESO!!) for just under $1.
- You can get margaritas here, but they're not nearly the quality you'll get at La Cava del Tequila or Choza de Margarita.
- Things we've enjoyed: Guacamole with Totopos, Taco Trio, Tacos de Barbacoa, Nachos, La Cantina Slushy (delicious but portion size is small), Tequila Sundae – basically a lime DOLE Whip reimagined as a margarita!

PRO TIPS

- Sometimes, indoor seating within the attached Hacienda de San Angel restaurant is available to those eating at La Cantina during lunch.

AMPLE INDOOR SEATING

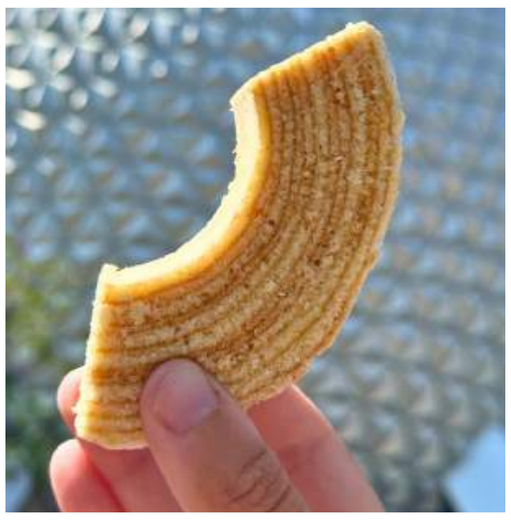

Connections Café is located in EPCOT's World Celebration neighborhood and is the Starbucks location in this park. Expect to find your favorite Starbucks drinks from home here, including frappuccinos, specialty drinks, tea, seasonal offerings, and more. You'll also find a few breakfast sandwiches and pastries you'll recognize from your local Starbucks. What makes this spot unique is its liege waffle treat, made with brioche dough and pearl & powdered sugar! Or try other unique-to-this-spot treats you may find in the bakery case (like the Baumkuchen)!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Starbucks drinks and eats, as well as some unique-to-Disney items like the Liege Waffle.
- The Baumkuchen Cake (a cake with many thin layers) is a unique item at this location. There are other seasonal options that come and go, so be on the lookout!
- Be on the lookout for seasonal versions of the Liege Waffle
- Connections Cafe can get BUSY and does not offer mobile order

PRO TIPS

- There is LOTS of air-conditioned seating in here, and some seats even have outlets handy so you can charge your devices.
- Look for nods to EPCOT around the restaurant – including the floor!

You can usually expect burgers, pizza, salad, and chicken strips. The options are, at their core, "safe" items, but some have a few unique twists to keep them interesting and flavorful.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- You'll also find shakes, a Liege Waffle, Baumkuchen (a special cake with MANY layers), and a few alcoholic drinks
- Look for seasonal options!
- Things we've enjoyed: Hand-breaded Chicken Sandwich, Liege Waffle, Baumkuchen, Watermelon-Mint Agua Fresca, Belgian Chocolate Gelato Shake, General Tso Tofu Salad (a Table Service-level dish!)

PRO TIPS

- LOTS of indoor air-conditioned seating. Look for tables and booths with outlets or wireless charging.

NO SEATING

Crêpes À Emporter is the Quick Service window attached to La Crêperie de Paris in the France Pavilion, giving you a tasty option for crêpes on the go! This walk-up window serves a few of the same sweet crêpe and savory galette options you'll find at La Crêperie, plus several unique-to-this-spot options. You'll also find ice cream, hard cider, wine, champagne, mimosas, and beer. The menu is limited, and most items are sweet. But if you're looking for a quick meal or snack that can be shared with a friend and you love crepes, consider stopping by.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Combination of sweet crêpes and savory galettes.
- You can find a limited menu of L'Artisan des Glaces ice cream at Crêpes À Emporter – often with fewer people in line!
- Look for La Bête de Crêpe – a GIANT crepe filled with cheese, mushrooms, ham, and arugula – DELICIOUS!
- Things we've enjoyed: Cream of Brie Cheese Galette, Red Berries Crêpe, Vanilla Ice Cream Crêpe, Cidre Brut Cider, Chocolate Milkshake, La Bête de Crêpe

PRO TIPS

- Several of the options on the menu here are different than what you'll find in the Table Service restaurant.
- Several of the sweet crepes, milkshakes, and ice cream treats qualify as a snack credit on the Dining Plan, and the more expensive ones can be a good value.
- The closest tables are typically by the water or by the entrance to the Ratatouille expansion area. Be prepared to walk to find a table!

Les Halles is one of our FAVORITE places to grab a bite to eat in EPCOT. Located in the back of the France Pavilion, this bakery is home to some seriously stellar French baked goods, sandwiches, soups, and more. This is also one of the few Quick Service options in World Showcase where you can get breakfast. Don't let the long line intimidate you – it moves pretty quickly! Tables are VERY limited and some items may not be particularly adventurous. But if you want delicious eats, stop by! We think this spot is well worth the visit.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Traditional French bakery and cafe
- You can typically expect soups, sandwiches, quiche, croissants, pastries, and more, plus coffee, beer, wine, and frosé.
- Things we've enjoyed: Jambon Beurre, Brie aux Pommes, Croque Monsieur, Baguette, Pain Lard Fromage, Bisque de Homard, Viennoiserie Pomme, Frosé, Creme Brulee, Citron, Pissaladiere…truthfully, it's hard to go wrong here with almost any choice!
- Look for specialty & limited-time options. We've seen things like a GIANT croissant covered in chocolate or a chocolate bear pop.

PRO TIPS

- Popular items can sell out, so stop by early if you want something specific!
- Grab a MASSIVE baguette for just under $5!
- Several tasty items qualify as a snack credit on the Dining Plan.

Tucked away up on a hill in the Japan Pavilion, you'll find Katsura Grill. This is a good option if you're looking for basic Japanese eats. The setting is beautiful, with many of the outdoor tables surrounded by massive bamboo and babbling streams. This spot serves up fairly recognizable and somewhat Americanized Japanese eats. It's not necessarily too different from the kind of eats you might find at home. Nothing on the menu is too surprising, but some of the things we've had are really tasty! If you want fast Japanese cuisine, check this out.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Small menu – Basic Japanese eats like udon, ramen, and teriyaki. Look for placards showing special items that may only be available for a limited time.
- Some dishes are more hearty and filling, like the Tonkotsu (Pork) Ramen, while others are lighter and have slightly smaller portions than you might expect for the price.
- Things we've enjoyed: Beef Udon, Beef Teriyaki
- Most of the sushi has moved to Kabuki Cafe. But a Sushi Bowl may be available at Katsura – check during your visit.

PRO TIPS

- The seating inside Katsura Grill isn't very large, but there's also outdoor seating with beautiful trees all around.
- You have to climb some stairs to get to Katsura. It's a tucked-away retreat.

Kringla Bakeri og Kafe is a tiny little treasure trove of Norwegian goodies. Plenty of delicious sweet treats line the display cases. The Skolebrød (School Bread) is an iconic and hugely popular snack here. It is a sweet roll filled with custard and dipped in coconut. And you can wash it down with Nordic Draft Beer or Viking Coffee. This little spot is a must-visit with some unique sweets you may have never tried before. Once you try it, you may want to come back over and over again!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Norwegian sweets include things like Skolebrød, Norwegian Kringla (pretzel-shaped pastry with toppings), Rice Cream, Lefse (flatbread rolled with cinnamon, sugar, and butter), & more
- Look for seasonal treats
- Things we've enjoyed: Skolebrød (School Bread), Frozen Viking Coffee (or go non-alcoholic with the Kristoff Kaffe), Norwegian Kringla, Cinnamon Roll with Orange Cream Cheese Icing, Triple Chocolate Chip Cookie
- Look for seasonally flavored Boller rolls. We've seen them filled with hazelnut and even lemon curd!

PRO TIPS

- Seating is open-air but under the protection of a roofed patio.
- Some spots in World Showcase don't open until a little later in the morning, BUT the Norway Pavilion opens with the park so guests can get on the Frozen Ever After ride. So, Kringla Bakeri is one of the few World Showcase stops that is open for breakfast!
- There typically aren't trays available here so get the group to help carry items to the table.

If you've got a craving for some local takeout-style Chinese dishes, this might be the place for you. You'll find basic eats here – pork egg rolls, orange chicken, fried rice, and more. And you can stop in for Chinese beers and plum wine. The restaurant doesn't have the best reputation, the food doesn't have an exotic feel or taste to it, and it may not feel worth the cost. But if you're looking for Chinese take-out familiarity and an open-air seating area, or are traveling with a picky eater who loves this type of food, this could be worth a try.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Expect Chinese takeout-style dishes in a covered, outdoor seating area
- The Hot Oolong Tea is nice on a cool day!
- Things we've enjoyed: Orange Chicken, Mongolian Beef Noodle Combo, Caramel-Ginger Ice Cream, Lychee Ice Cream

PRO TIPS

- The restaurant is open to the outside. There is covered seating, but no air conditioning.
- Grab some sauce packets to enhance the flavor of the dishes.
- Nine Dragons Restaurant is a better pick if you're craving Chinese in EPCOT but want something a little more unique.

Pizza al Taglio means “pizza by the slice” in Italian. This spot serves up…pizza by the slice! This to-go window is located at the back of the Italy Pavilion. But be warned: it is only open seasonally, so it may NOT be available during your visit. The pizza here is a square, thick-crust Sicilian-style slice (not the same as what you’ll find in the nearby Via Napoli Table Service restaurant). You can usually find cheese or pepperoni options, and they are GOOOOOOD – consistently tasty and cheesy with an awesome crust. This is a great spot to grab pizza on the go!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Sicilian-style pizza by the slice, along with beer, wine, and cocktails like a Limoncello Mule or Frozen Sangria
- These are thicker-crust pizzas.
- You may also find additional treats here, like a Tiramisu
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Pizza Pepperoni, Pizza Margherita, Tiramisú Alla "Nutella®", Frozen Wild Blueberry

PRO TIPS

- Only open seasonally – typically during busier times of the year.
- Disney Dining Plan: 1 Quick Service credit here can usually get you a slice of cheese or pepperoni pizza + a drink.
- There is no seating directly by Pizza al Taglio, so you may have to peek around the Pavilion for a seat to sit and enjoy your slice.

Regal Eagle offers up American barbecue and craft brews on tap. To make things even better, it's themed around The Muppets' Sam Eagle! There's a good amount of seating indoors and outside, AND even an outdoor walk-up bar. If you're looking for international fare that's more adventurous or are very particular about your barbecue, this might not be the best fit. But this spot is great for picky eaters. Plus, the prices are reasonable, the portion sizes are good, and some of the food is really tasty!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- American BBQ in regional styles – expect things like ribs, smoked sausage, smoked pork butt, and more
- Things we've enjoyed: BBQ Burger, Sliced Texas Beef Brisket Sandwich, North Carolina Chopped Smoked Pork Butt, Baked Beans with Burnt Ends, Macaroni & Cheese, Banana Pudding, Brewmaster Fries (ask for extra beer cheese!)
- The Plant-Based Chili Potato is a MASSIVE and a really tasty plant-based option; just grab some salt * pepper packets to give it a small (but needed) boost.

PRO TIPS

- Check out the outdoor bar for specialty cocktails, draft beer, hard cider, wine, and unique drinks you won't find in the restaurant, like a Frozen Mint Julep and Frozen Iced Tea Lemonade.
- Try the house-recipe sauces.
- The Loaded Burnt Ends Fries used to be a BIG favorite, but have disappeared. Check to see if they return!

You'll generally find bratwurst and jumbo pretzels on the menu along with German wine and beer. And you CANNOT forget dessert – the Pretzel Bread Pudding is a MUST-GET, top-tier EPCOT dessert! The menu is very limited, but if you want to try some German classics, this is a GREAT spot.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Casual German cuisine
- Find the iconic and fan-favorite drink – Grapefruit beer (Schöfferhofer Pink Grapefruit Hefeweizen) – here.
- House-made paprika chips come as a side for the bratwurst but are a DELICIOUS snack on their own – ask a Cast Member if you can order them!
- Things we've enjoyed: Bratwurst with Sauerkraut, Jumbo Pretzel, Pretzel Bread Pudding, Grapefruit Beer, Obatzda Cheese Dip (get this as a dip for your pretzel!)

PRO TIPS

- The Jumbo Pretzel is definitely large enough to share as a snack and is of good quality.
- Check out their drinks served in a vintage souvenir stein.
- There are a few cafe tables outside, but seating is limited.

KIOSKS & SNACKS

KIOSKS & SNACKS

You're usually not far from a snack at Disney World, and you don't need to look too hard to find one (or seven!).

Disney World's snack kiosks are a key part of the park experience, offering iconic treats, seasonal specials, and unique flavors.

These kiosks are typically small stands or carts, providing quick & delicious items on the go. Some are famous for must-try Disney snacks, others may serve up basics, and some serve as hidden gems with unique offerings.

In terms of seating, you may find a nearby bench or ledge to sit on as you savor your snack. But you may find that many folks simply enjoy their snack as they stroll to the next attraction.

If you need a seat, consider grabbing your snack and hopping into a Quick Service restaurant that has ample seating. You can generally take your popcorn or pretzel into a Quick Service spot to enjoy some AC while you nibble – just be conscientious of the diners around you who also need a table for their meal.

Some snack spots may be cashless and may only accept credit cards, Disney gift cards, or mobile payments, so keep that in mind.

$ SNACK BLD

This unassuming kiosk at the entrance of the American Adventure Pavilion is where you'll find plenty of classic theme park snacks and treats like Mickey Pretzels, popcorn, hot dogs, turkey legs, ice cream, and more. You can also find a few different beers and other drinks (both alcoholic and nonalcoholic). This is also the home to the FUN American Dream Slushy. Overall, the menu is fairly basic but sometimes a classic snack is all you need!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Classic snacks fill this menu, including popcorn, Mickey pretzels, soft-serve ice cream, turkey legs, frozen slushy drinks, hot dogs, and a selection of alcoholic beverages.
- The root beer floats are fun.
- The American Dream drink is an especially fun drink! It's a slushy made with Frozen Fanta Wild Cherry, Vanilla Ice Cream, and Frozen Fanta Blue Raspberry. It disappeared from the menu for a bit but then returned. It's a colorful and refreshing choice if available when you visit.

PRO TIPS

- This is THE ONLY place to get a Turkey Leg in EPCOT.
- You can fill your Refillable Popcorn Bucket here (souvenir popcorn buckets come with discounted refills of popcorn for the length of your stay).

GELATERIA TOSCANA

$ SNACK BLD

At this snack spot in the Italy Pavilion, you'll find a variety of frozen treats like gelati, sorbetti, floats, and more. The menu usually includes a rotating flavor of the month along with creative gelato options like floats, milkshakes, sundaes, cookie sandwiches, and frozen sangria. You'll also find drinks like Italian margaritas, beer, and wine. Prices can be on the higher side, but some items are truly worth the splurge. If you're a gelato fan looking for a refreshing treat, this is a solid stop.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The menu includes gelato, sorbet, floats, desserts such as tiramisu, and even specialty drinks like limoncello floats. Look for new items to pop up here from time to time!
- The Affogato Espresso Gelato is delicious, but tiny for the price.
- Things we've enjoyed: Italian Margarita, Cannoli Al Cioccolato (one of the best cannoli shells we've ever had in Disney), Coppa del Nonno (big enough to share, good enough that you won't want to!)

PRO TIPS

- Stop by for a refreshing treat before the EPCOT fireworks.

GERMANY HOVELS

This kiosk in the Germany Pavilion serves up a variety of beverages including beer, Jägermeister liqueur with Frozen Coca-Cola or Lemonade, and wine. You can also find HUGE hand-twisted soft pretzels here. The menu is small but can give you the salty-and-refreshing mix you need!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- The Schöfferhofer Grapefruit Hefeweizen is a BIG favorite for many – light and crisp with refreshing hints of grapefruit. You'll find it here and in other spots in the Germany Pavilion, and sometimes in other places in Disney World, too.
- Dining Plan snack credits are accepted here, but only for non-alcoholic frozen slushies and bottled drinks.

GERMANY BIER UND BRETZELN CART

This small cart is located on the pathway at the front of the Germany Pavilion, and it sells some similar items to the Hovels kiosk, which is tucked just inside the Pavilion. At the cart, you'll typically find a JUMBO pretzel, wine, beer, and soft drinks.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Look for German drinks like Beck's Pilsner & more.
- The fan-favorite Grapefruit beer is generally available here so you can quickly grab it and continue on your day.
- Dining Plan snack credits are accepted here but only for non-alcoholic bottled drinks.

JOFFREY'S COFFEE & TEA COMPANY KIOSKS

DDP $ SNACK DVC AP DV BLD

Stop by the Joffrey's Coffee & Tea Company kiosks throughout EPCOT for a pick-me-up any time of day. There are 5 locations in this park alone, including one right outside the park entrance. You can find brewed coffee, cold brews, iced and hot lattes, specialty teas and drinks, plus pastries like donuts and cookies. It might not be as popular as Starbucks, but it'll certainly fulfill your caffeine needs, and some items are especially tasty!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Snacks include giant donuts (made by Donut King), cookies, pastries, and more.
- Most locations feature the same menu, but certain specialty drinks may be exclusively available at one specific kiosk or another.
- Things we've enjoyed: Shakin' Jamaican Cold Brew, Seasonal Beverages

PRO TIPS

- There are 5 locations in EPCOT:
  - At the Monorail station;
  - Near Guardians of the Galaxy: Cosmic Rewind;
  - Near Disney Traders;
  - Between the Canada and the United Kingdom pavilions; and
  - By the American Adventure Pavilion.
- Seriously, look for specialty cookies – these can be REALLY delicious

JOY OF TEA

$ SNACK LD

This small kiosk across from the main part of the China Pavilion has several different tea-based drinks to try...as its name suggests! You'll typically find hot tea, iced tea, bubble tea, and milk tea here. But wait...there's more! You can also usually get a small snack, like egg rolls, along with beer, and a variety of specialty cocktails, including the popular Tipsy Ducks in Love! The menu is limited, but if you love tea and want a tasty drink or snack in a hurry, don't overlook this spot.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Some cocktails are more unique, like the Lychee Cha Cha or the Dragon Butterfly (with Butterfly Pea Flower Gin).
- Things we've enjoyed: Egg rolls, Tipsy Ducks in Love (made with bourbon, black tea, coffee, cream, and chocolate), Bubble Milk Tea

PRO TIPS

- The line can get a little long, but it moves fast.
- The egg rolls are priced reasonably, making them a budget-friendly snack.
- Look to see if there are any special offerings available.

KABUKI CAFE

$ SNACK LD

This unassuming snack stand in the Japan Pavilion features sweet treats and healthier eats. The BIG draw here is the Kakigōri – a shaved ice dessert flavored with syrups (and some optional toppings, like sweet milk). You can also find some basic sushi rolls, Japanese beer, sake, and plum wine. For more elevated and unique eats, you're better off at one of the other restaurants in the Japan Pavilion. But if you want a quick & refreshing treat or some low-maintenance Japanese food, this is a place to consider!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- You can find a variety of Kakigōri flavors like strawberry, melon, lemon, blue Hawaii, and more.
- You can get some fun toppings like a variety of Crème flavors or sweet milk.
- This isn't the best sushi we've had in EPCOT, but the options here aren't bad & they're surprisingly fresh (and they're 1 snack credit on the Dining Plan)
- Look for special items to pop up from time to time
- Things we've enjoyed: Kakigori with your choice of flavors - the sweet milk topping makes it more decadent, Blood Orange Sake Slushie, Mochi-Gori, Violet Sake Slush, Kabuki Energy Refresher Mocktail
- The A5 Wagyu Nigiri Combo is worth stopping by for if you're a steak fan!

PRO TIPS

- Go to the relaxing area near Katsura Grill to enjoy your treat at a table.

KARAMELL-KÜCHE

AP DVC BLD

If you're walking through the Germany Pavilion and are suddenly hit by the delicious smells of caramel, butter, and sugar – that's probably Karamell-Küche! This snack spot is a HUGE favorite of ours. You'll find many tempting sweets here, like their incredibly popular caramel corn, caramel squares, cupcakes topped with caramel, cookie sandwiches, and MUCH more. It's caramel heaven. If you've got a sweet tooth, do NOT miss this spot.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu typically includes bars, cookies, Rice Krispies treats, cupcakes, marshmallows, and more – all incorporating caramel.
- Cookie sandwiches can change seasonally & are BIG favorites. We especially like the Gingerbread Cookie Sandwich and Caramel Chocolate Cookie Sandwich.
- Things we've enjoyed: Caramel apple cookie, caramel pecan bar, salted caramel cupcake, sea-salted chocolate-covered caramel, alcohol-infused caramel flight, caramel corn, caramel butter bar, Caramel Pretzel, Caramel Apple Crisp Pie (but it is tiny), Mickey caramel treat

PRO TIPS

- This is considered a merchandise shop so increased discounts apply for APs and DVC members.
- Look for seasonal options.
- Use Mobile Order to save time!

L'ARTISAN DES GLACES

$ LD

If you're looking for a sweet treat with a twist, L'Artisan des Glaces in the France Pavilion is where you want to be! You'll find various flavors of house-made ice cream and sorbet served here, along with specialty items like macaron ice cream sandwiches, brioche ice cream sandwiches, ice cream martinis, and cappuccino served with ice cream. You're paying a premium for artisanal ice cream, but if you're craving a sweet and cold treat, this is a good place to go.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Some flavors are more "standard" options (vanilla, chocolate, etc.), but you can also opt for unique options like cinnamon caramel apple or blueberry yogurt (note that flavors can change!)
- Look for seasonal flavors.
- Things we've enjoyed: Ice Cream Martini, Croque Glace

PRO TIPS

- On the Disney Dining Plan, a single or double scoop cup/cone or a Macaron Ice Cream Sandwich can generally be purchased with 1 Snack Credit.

THE ODYSSEY

$ SNACK LD

The Odyssey features an ever-changing menu of snacks. Typically, this spot is home to various festival snacks during EPCOT's seasonal festivals, and the snack kiosk within receives a new temporary name with each change. You may find it as the Brew-Wing Lab during the Food & Wine Festival, The Citrus Blossom during the Flower & Garden Festival, and more.  In between festivals, you may also find some unique snack offerings here. In 2026, it was temporarily home to The Light Lounge in between the Flower & Garden and Food & Wine Festivals, and featured churro bites and more. So stop on by, you never quite know what you'll find!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu changes with the seasons and festivals in EPCOT
- You'll usually find a few snack options, bottled drinks, potentially a more unique drink option, and alcoholic drink options

PRO TIPS

- You may also find unique character interactions or other forms of entertainment in the seating area.
- Plus, you'll find tables and chairs in air conditioning, making it a nice place to sit down and cool off.

OASIS SWEETS & SIPS

$ · SNACK · BLD

Oasis Sweets & Sips is an often-overlooked walk-up counter in the Morocco Pavilion. It features little pastries like baklava, cookies, and more. Beers, red and white sangria, mimosas, and frozen drinks are available as well. If you want a savory snack, are allergic to nuts (many items here have nuts!), or you want a menu with more variety, head elsewhere. But if you're looking for sweet treats, you like baklava, or you want a refreshing drink, consider checking this place out.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Things we've enjoyed: Frozen Mint Tea, Frozen Citrus-Pomegranate Slushy with Absolut Mandarin Vodka, Kataifi
- Can't decide what to try? You can often get a set with a few different pastries – a great way to share with your group.

VIA NAPOLI DONKEY CART

$ · SNACK · LD

For a bit of gelato or a simple adult beverage, check out the Via Napoli "Donkey Cart" (sadly, no, it is not a real donkey). The menu can change, but it usually features cocktails, limited sorbet options, and a tiramisu popsicle! It's good for a quick, refreshing option.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Limited menu – can include Limoncello Cocktail, Orangecello Cocktail, Bellini, Prosecco, and more
- Items are pricey for the smaller portions you get
- Things we've enjoyed: Tiramisu popsicle
- Open seasonally
- Look for it tucked a bit into the Italy Pavilion, on the right-hand side.
- Disney Dining Plan accepted for very limited items

POPCORN CARTS: WORLD CELEBRATION

$ SNACK BLD

You'll find plenty of popcorn stands around EPCOT, with two main ones located in World Celebration – one near Creations Shop and the other by Journey Into Imagination with Figment. Both offer classic Disney popcorn and collectible souvenir buckets, along with cold drinks and popular treats like Mickey's Premium Ice Cream Bars. While these snacks may not be the most adventurous options in the park, they're great if you're craving a classic treat or looking to snag a fun popcorn bucket.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Look for specialty popcorn buckets! These are useful for carrying your popcorn and make for fun souvenirs.
- You can get discounted refills on popcorn during your trip if you bring your souvenir bucket with you.
- You can typically get a beer at these spots, too.

PRO TIPS

- Near Creations Shop: You may occasionally find a breakfast sandwich.
- Near the Imagination Pavilion: Look for Mickey Pretzels and a few more frozen snacks here, too.

LA POUTINERIE

$ SNACK LD

Sponsored by Air Canada, La Poutinerie opened on July 1st, 2026, and serves “a Canadian classic with a twist,” which feels appropriate for a kiosk long known for poutine in various delicious forms. This spot is home to a small but mighty menu of poutine options, and yes, those creative, gravy-soaked fry offerings made it a worthwhile stop. The menu is limited (so it might not be the best for a big group or really picky eaters), but if you like fries, cheese, and gravy, and are craving a fun snack, you’ll DEFINITELY want to stop by this spot.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu features various poutine options. You may find things like a classic option with fries, cheese curds, and brown gravy, and one with fries, cheese curds, pickles, smoked meat, and mustard gravy.
- You’ll also find a limited number of drinks (with and without alcohol)
- The Spiced Apple Slushy is made with ginger beer and spiced apple flavors.
- Things we liked: Québec: L'Authentique, Montréal: Viande Fumée, Spiced Apple Mule (tastes like fall in a cup!)

PRO TIPS

- There is no formal seating area or coverage from inclement weather, so plan to get your snacks ‘on the go’ to stroll and eat.
- The servings are big enough to share so bring a friend or bring your appetite.

POPCORN CART: CANADA

$ SNACK LD

The big specialty here is the MAPLE popcorn. This Maple popcorn is a DFB favorite – the texture is more like kettle corn, it has a light maple flavoring, and it's a combination of salty and sweet. All of that combined makes this a fantastic snack.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- There are unique beers from Canada and a cocktail or two here. Some alcoholic drinks we've seen here include Moosehead Lager Draft and Ottawa Apple with Crown Royal Whiskey, Maple, Apple Infusion, and Cranberry Juice.
- You can refill your Refillable Popcorn Bucket here with maple popcorn – a flavorful twist that's more unique than standard popcorn.

REFRESHMENT OUTPOST

$ SNACK LD

You'll generally find sodas, bottled water, and frozen slushies here. But there are 2 BIG draws to this spot. 1) You can usually find DOLE Whip here. 2) Seasonal snacks and drinks (particularly alcoholic drinks) pop up here during EPCOT Festivals, so there's an ever-changing menu of offerings. Stop by to see what's available during your trip – you might find something surprisingly good.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- See what Festival-specific items are available. Some of these have REALLY impressed us!
- DOLE Whip flavors can change.
- Look for beer here, along with seasonal cocktails and a boozy lemonade.
- The Frozen Brown Elephant is a BIG favorite for many – made with Frozen Coca-Cola with Amarula Cream Liqueur – see if it's available when you go.

REFRESHMENT STATION

$ SNACK LD

If it's a cold slushy you're after, go to this snack spot (near Test Track). What's unique is that you can usually add fun candy toppings to your slushy, like popping candy, freeze-dried Skittles, gummy fish, rock candy, and more! It's a fun option for kiddos and great for cooling down on a hot day.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Menu includes things like Frozen Coca-Cola and other frozen drinks – some flavors we've seen include Fanta Pina Colada or Minute Maid Hibiscus Lemonade, but flavors can change.
- You can get the slush plain or pay a few more cents to top it with assorted candies.
- May only be open seasonally, so check to see if it's available during your trip.

SWIRLED SHOWCASE

$ SNACK LD

Swirled Showcase primarily serves as a booth during EPCOT's various festivals, but you may find the booth open and serving a limited menu during non-festival times. Typically, you'll find ice cream and other treats here – some basic options + some unique Festival-specific options.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Basic options, which may be served even during non-festival times, can include soft serve in a waffle cone, ice cream floats, and seasonal draft beer.
- Some Festival-specific options we've seen include Strawberry-Basil Sorbet, Liquid Nitro Honey-Marscapone Cheesecake, Liquid Nitrogen Frozen Sweet Potato Mousse, Frozen Apple Pie, and more.
- Check to see if it's open and what is available!

WORLD DISCOVERY SNACK STAND

$ SNACK LD

Grab your quick and classic Disney snacks here, including popcorn, Mickey pretzels, cotton candy, churros, and drinks. Look for the cart in front of Mission: SPACE.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Standard snacks make up the menu here – there's nothing wrong with that, but there are certainly more unique snacks to be found in World Showcase.
- You can get specially-priced popcorn refills throughout your stay if you buy a souvenir bucket.

THE LAND CART

$ SNACK BLD

Just steps outside the Land Pavilion at EPCOT is The Land Cart – a little kiosk that usually serves Mickey-shaped pretzels, pickles, fruit cups, and drinks, including smoothies. During EPCOT festivals, however, this spot may transform into a differently-named Festival booth and serve a Festival-specific menu. It's worth checking out to see what's available when you visit!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- The "standard" menu isn't anything revolutionary, but it can be good for those looking for a classic snack option.
- Things we've enjoyed: Tropical Smoothie (when available), Heihei Delight
- The pickle is a popular snack for some – eat it fast because it can soften and lose some of its crunch if you don't.

OTHER SNACK OPTIONS

$ SNACK LD

World Showcase is a treasure trove of hidden secrets, incredible details, and international experiences! As you explore each international pavilion, keep your eyes open for specialty snacks and treats, sodas and teas, and even wine, champagne, or beer! The shops won't populate on the My Disney Experience App as "dining locations," but be sure to check them out because you might just find your new favorite bite or sip hiding there! Other snack carts throughout EPCOT that may sell your "standard" frozen novelty items, as well as potentially some specialty items.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- You can find prepackaged snacks at shops in World Showcase, including, but not limited to:
  - Trading Post (Canada) – look for chocolate snacks and some that feature ice wine
  - Mitsukoshi Department Store (Japan) – the Ice Cream Wafer Sandwiches, flavored breads (we've liked the Baked Wheat Cake Pastry Roll Maple Flavor & Hokkaido Milk Flavor), and Grapefruit Crushed Ice + Kirin Salty Lychee drink are just some of the fun options, but there's a LOT to try!
  - House of Good Fortune (China) – look for uniquely flavored potato chips and specialty items from time to time.
  - Tea Caddy or Queen's Table (United Kingdom) – candies, cookies, and more

PRO TIPS

- Take the time to explore every pavilion, you never know what you may find.
- Ask the international Cast Members for recommendations and their thoughts on tasty snacks or sips.
- Some prepackaged snacks are great to take home to extend the magic of your trip.

BARS & LOUNGES

BARS & LOUNGES

If you're looking for a spot to grab a drink to cool down in the middle of your park day, search for a bar or lounge that might be near you.

Some of these are more elaborate and offer more options (including small plates of food or offerings from an attached restaurant's menu), while others are smaller and feature more limited menus focused entirely on drinks.

Some may technically be considered a Table Service location (meaning you'll sit at a table, have a server take your order, and enjoy your drink while lounging around). Others may have some seating but offer drinks in a quicker fashion, and some might be purely grab-and-go locations.

Some may also have a full bar available, where you can get more customized drinks, while other spots may serve mainly pre-mixed drink options.

Keep in mind that while most of these locations are focused on alcoholic options, you may find some non-alcoholic drinks too.

It all depends! There's a lot out there to check out!

BLOCK & HANS

$ SNACK LD

Block & Hans is a small kiosk located just on the outskirts of the American Adventure Pavilion. Stop by to find a rotating selection of craft beers from around the United States, and a few other items. The star of the snack show here is the PRETZEL NUGGETS with a House-Made Beer-Cheese Sauce!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Check for special items that might pop up here during specific seasons or EPCOT festivals.
- If you can't decide or are particularly thirsty, grab the beer flight here to try a few options.
- Look for limited non-alcoholic options.
- Don't miss the pretzel nuggets – YUM!

GARDEN HOUSE

$ SNACK LD

Garden House is the Japan Pavilion's outdoor sake kiosk – famous for the Violet Sake and Tokyo Sunset, plus draft Japanese beers and hot/cold sake. This spot ONLY serves alcoholic drinks and bottled water, so if you're after a snack or a non-alcoholic drink, look elsewhere. But if you want an alcoholic beverage and want to try some that are very popular in EPCOT, stop on by!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Very little seating – a few outdoor picnic tables.
- Look for Kirin Frozen Beer with frozen foam on top.
- Things we've enjoyed: Violet Sake (kind of a legend in EPCOT), Tokyo Sunset for a fruitier option, Hyoketsu Strawberry, Yuzu Pineapple Punch
- Try a cocktail flight to sample a few different drinks. And look for seasonal drink offerings that change every few months.

LA CAVA DEL TEQUILA

$$ LD

La Cava del Tequila is a fan-favorite tequila bar in EPCOT and practically a rite of passage for guests 21 and up. It offers a cozy, inviting atmosphere with over 200 tequilas, creative margaritas, and a variety of other drinks, along with tapas-style snacks. This spot is small, seating is limited, and it's wildly popular, so lines can get long. Arriving right at opening gives you the best chance at snagging a seat. If you're looking for bold drinks, tasty bites, and a break from the rest of the park, this is a great hideaway.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The menu usually features a wide selection of tequilas, Mexican craft beers, margaritas – some created by celebrities like Lily Aldridge, Jordan Fisher, Neil Patrick Harris, Bret Iwan, and more – along with cocktails and non-alcoholic options.
- Some drinks come with special touches, like black ant salt rims, adding a fun twist.
- Look for limited-time offerings
- Things we've enjoyed: Creamy and refreshing Avocado Margarita, Malumita Margarita, classic queso with chips, Tricolor

PRO TIPS

- You can get your drinks to go if you can't get a table.
- This spot can draw a long line, but it usually moves pretty fast.

Read Our Reviews ↗

CHOZA DE MARGARITA

$ SNACK LD

Choza de Margarita is located just outside the Mexico Pavilion pyramid and serves up signature margaritas “on the rocks” and frozen margaritas, in addition to a limited menu of snacks, which can include tacos, empanadas, quesadillas, tostadas, elote, and guacamole. The drinks menu is more limited than that at La Cava del Tequila (inside the pyramid), but you can get some similar flavors with drinks that still pack a punch and taste delicious with LESS of a wait.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- You’ll also find beer and a non-alcoholic option.
- Snacks here can be some hidden gems – small portions, full of flavor, nice for a lighter option.
- Cucumber Margarita is good if you want something light and refreshing.
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Tostada de Pollo, Empanada de Barbacoa, Guacamole, Elote, Fiesta Margarita

PRO TIPS

- The line can get long here on busy days, and it’s entirely in the sun, so keep that in mind.
- There are no seating options – just some bar tables nearby.

GEO-82

$$ LD 1

GEO-82 is a newer lounge INSIDE the structure that's home to Spaceship Earth. The space inside is beautiful with a sleek look, and you get some unique views of the park. The menu features some small plates and elegant cocktails. It's a FANCY and pricey spot. If you're planning to drink around the world, want simpler & fruitier cocktails, or have kids in tow (this spot is adults-ONLY), this may not be a good spot. But if you want an escape from theme park life, are a cocktail enthusiast, and want an upscale experience, do NOT miss this place.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Cocktails here are sophisticated and unique. You'll find things here that you can't find anywhere else in Disney World.
- If your preference lands on the sweeter side of the cocktail spectrum, this menu might not be your favorite.
- We've enjoyed: Truffled Ahi Tuna, Charcuterie Board, Peach Shrub Whisky Smash, Carmelized Leek Martini, Clarified New York Sour, Brown Butter Old-Fashioned, Pink Peppercorn Clover Club, Clarified Bee's Knees, Jamon Iberico Croquetas

PRO TIPS

- This spot is exclusively for guests 21 and older, so plan accordingly if you're visiting with the family.
- It's popular, so book reservations quickly.

ENOTECA CASTELLO

$ SNACK LD

This is a tucked away spot in the Italy Pavilion that many may walk past, but stop in and you might be surprised to find plenty of glasses of wine, other drinks, and even some pre-packaged snacks.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Menu options can include things like red wine, sparkling wines, white wines, liqueur, and beer.
- Options can change, but it's worth a visit to see what's available!
- This isn't a lounge spot with dedicated seating. Instead, it's more of a counter to grab some wine and continue your walk around EPCOT.

NORWAY BEER CART

Dd TP $ SNACK LD

The small Norway Beer Cart was replaced by a larger kiosk structure in early 2026. It serves a limited number of snacks, including the FAMOUS Skolebrød (School Bread), along with some drinks. The menu is small, but if you want that popular Skolebrød or want a quick snack and drink, this could do the trick!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Skolebrød, or a seasonal Bolle sometimes available during EPCOT's festivals, is the main snack. You'll also find Mickey's Premium Ice Cream Bars and Ice Cream Sandwiches, and fruit bars.
- Drinks include sodas, water, Trollkrem (a frozen blend of cranberry and vanilla – spiked or not), and some alcoholic drinks.
- Strawberry Cream Ale is a nice option with slightly different flavors than a "traditional" American beer.

REGAL EAGLE OUTDOOR BAR

$ SNACK LD

Just outside of the Regal Eagle Quick Service restaurant in the American Adventure Pavilion, you'll find an outdoor bar. Non-alcoholic specialties, specialty cocktails, beer, cider, and wine are available. Most of these drinks are not available inside of the Regal Eagle Quick Service restaurant. Stop on by if you're after a quick drink to go with your meal or simply to enjoy during your EPCOT day!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Menu typically includes non-alcoholic specialties (like a Frozen Iced Tea Lemonade and Berry Sparkler drink), specialty cocktails (like a Frozen Mint Julep, Texas Mule, or Frozen Classic Strawberry Daiquiri), draft beer, hard cider, and wine on tap
- Again, most of these drinks are unique to this spot and NOT available inside the Quick Service restaurant so keep that in mind!

THE SAKE BAR

$ SNACK LD

Upstairs in the Japan Pavilion, between Shiki-Sai Izakaya and Sushi and Teppan Edo, you'll find a small, hidden sake bar.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- This is a walk-up bar with no dedicated seating.
- It's a great place to get a drink while you wait for your table at either Shiki-Sai or Teppan Edo to be ready.
- Ask the bartender for recommendations based on your favorite flavors.
- It can be a quieter alternative to the Garden House bar in the Japan Pavilion in the main area outside.

ROSE & CROWN BEER STAND

$ SNACK LD

If you've got a hankering for a quick drink in the United Kingdom Pavilion, consider stopping by the Rose & Crown Beer Stand (also called UK Beer Cart). The offerings here can vary a bit with the seasons, but some things we've found have included a Harp Lager Draft and BrewDog Punk IPA.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- You'll find this stand just outside the Rose & Crown Dining Room.
- Bottled water is generally available here too and the only thing you can use a Disney Dining Plan snack credit for here.
- EPCOT Festival-specific drinks may pop up here from time to time so keep an eye out for that!

ROSE & CROWN PUB

$ LD

If you're looking for a brew or want cozy British pub vibes, consider visiting the Rose & Crown Pub. The entrance is to the right of the attached Rose & Crown Dining Room. There aren't many tables and you might have to get a bartender's attention on a busy day, but it's a good spot for a variety of alcoholic options.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- You'll find British ales, some great scotch, a wide variety of beer concoctions, other British-inspired cocktails, wine and sangria, flights, and more.
- First come, first served.
- The full menu of beer concoctions is a major draw here.
- Things we've enjoyed: Pub blends, ask for a shamrock pour on your Guinness!

SPACE 220 LOUNGE

$ AP DVC LD 1

The Space 220 Lounge is a good option if you want to experience the immersive theming of the Space 220 restaurant without having to pay for the prix fixe meal that is served at the restaurant. You'll still get to board the "Stellavator" (elevator) that simulates a real-time launch, and dine while surrounded by "windows" that look into space. The Lounge has its own a la carte menu. Things can still get pricey and some of the dishes aren't terribly unique, but the theming is the big draw here and this is the way to get it without the full prix fixe cost.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Upscale, global cuisine. The Lounge-specific menu is focused on appetizer-style eats.
- Check out the space-themed alcoholic drinks and zero-proof cocktails, too.
- You may be able to order the full prix fixe menu offered in the restaurant while at the lounge. Ask your server.
- Things we've enjoyed: Blue Moon Cauliflower, Short-Rib Sliders

PRO TIPS

- The Lounge requires reservations & the area is small, so reservations can be even more difficult to score than the main restaurant.
- Can't get a reservation? Consider stopping by the bar at Space 220, which is first-come, first-served.

TUTTO GUSTO WINE CELLAR

$$ AP DVC LD

Tutto Gusto is a hidden wine cave in EPCOT's Italy Pavilion, and it's a great place to relax! It's limited to just 96 seats, themed like an Italian wine cellar, and VERY cozy. You can find cocktails, limoncello, beer, and over 200(!!) bottles of Italian wines, along with some food options. If you're looking for a sophisticated spot away from the crowds with an intimate atmosphere, this can be worth checking out.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- This spot has its own limited menu of items like fried calamari, baked eggplant parmigiana, and more.
- Can also order from the Tutto Italia restaurant menu
- Things we've enjoyed: Bellini, Crisp Italian Whties Wine Flight, Tortino di Melanzane, Calamari Fritti, Meat & cheese board options, Penne Arrabiata, Espresso Martini, Polpette Parmigiana

PRO TIPS

- This spot can be pricey for what you get, but the atmosphere and tasty food make up for it.
- You don't need a reservation here, but there may be a wait since it's such a small restaurant.
- On most days, this spot doesn't open until around 12:30 PM, so just plan accordingly.

LES VINS DES CHEFS DE FRANCE

$ SNACK LD

Les Vins des Chefs de France is located just across from the Chefs de France restaurant in the France Pavilion and is home to 2 of the most delicious and refreshing adult beverages in all of Disney World – the Grand Marnier Orange Slush and the Grey Goose Citron Lemon Slush. The menu is really just focused on alcohol, so you'll need to look elsewhere for food or non-alcoholic options. But if you want tasty, alcoholic, refreshing drinks that are HUGE fan favorites, stop here!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- You can order the Orange and Lemon Slushes as a Le Geant if you want them to be, well, giant!
- The menu also features French wines, beer, and champagne.
- Things we've enjoyed: Grand Marnier Orange Slush, Grey Goose Citron Lemon Slush
- Ask if you can get a secret menu LAYERED slush with both Lemon and Orange! It's a great way to try both if you're indecisive.

PRO TIPS

- No seating in this area, but there are some cafe tables in the Pavilion.
- There is often a line here, especially on hot days...but it's worth it!
- Look for a bright GREEN version of the slushes around St. Patrick's Day.

LES VINS DE FRANCE

$ SNACK LD

Les Vins de France is a HIDDEN champagne bar tucked inside the France Pavilion! The bar looks more like a gift shop but serves a variety of champagne, red wine, white wine, rosé wine, beer, and even some flights. Options can change, but it's a great way to get some drinks to go.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Look for flights that feature deluxe champagne options if you want to experience some of the most prestigious options.
- You'll find this spot tucked in toward the back of the Pavilion.
- You can also usually buy bottles to take home.

Read More Here ↗

WEINKELLER

$ SNACK LD

Located in the Germany Pavilion, Weinkeller is a cozy shop with a wine bar tucked away in the back of the room. Walk through too quickly and you might think this spot only sells bottles of wines, but you can actually buy glasses of beer and liqueurs at the bar in the back too.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Some of the options we've seen in the past include the iconic Grapefruit beer (a fan-favorite), Erdinger Dunkles Weissbier (a rich and smooth wheat beer), Williams Pear Brandy, and more.
- The Mozart Chocolate Liqueur Pumpkin Spice is a popular drink that'll give you some serious fall vibes!
- This isn't a lounge spot with dedicated seating, but more of a counter to grab some wine and continue your walk.

UNIQUE FOOD EXPERIENCES

UNIQUE FOOD EXPERIENCES

Looking for a unique dining experience on your Disney World trip? EPCOT is the place to find it! In addition to all the incredible Table Service and Quick Service restaurants, EPCOT is home to various ways to elevate your dining experiences. Let's dive into the details!

FIREWORKS DINING PACKAGES

If you want to enjoy a meal at a restaurant AND get excellent views of the EPCOT nighttime spectacular (currently Luminous The Symphony of Us), consider booking a Fireworks Dining Package. You can book these via the Disney World website or the My Disney Experience app. There are typically a few options available here.

ROSE & CROWN FIREWORKS DINING PACKAGE

With this, you'll be seated on the outside patio of the Rose & Crown Dining Room in the United Kingdom Pavilion, with an excellent view of World Showcase Lagoon and the nighttime spectacular (exact seating location within the restaurant's outdoor spaces can vary depending on weather expectations).

Your meal will be from a prix fixe menu of the Rose & Crown's British fare. It includes an appetizer, an entrée, a dessert, and a selection of unlimited beverages, including alcoholic beverages for those 21 years of age or older.

Prices start at $92 per adult (10+) and $41 per child (ages 3-9), but exact pricing may vary by date.

SPICE ROAD TABLE FIREWORKS DINING PACKAGE

The other option is a fireworks dining package at the Spice Road Table restaurant in the Morocco Pavilion. Seating is also available outside in a covered dining area, offering a great view of the water and fireworks.

You'll get a prix fixe menu here with Mediterranean dishes. Each guest can choose two small plates, plus there's a shared tagine and a dessert platter. Unlimited beverages are also included, including alcoholic beverages for those 21 years of age and older.

Prices start at $81 per adult (10+) and $31 per child (ages 3-9), but pricing may vary by date.

NEW IN 2026! SHIKI-SAI: SUSHI IZAKAYA FIREWORKS DINING PACKAGE

Enjoy views of World Showcase Lagoon and the fireworks as you eat your way through various items at Shiki-Sai in the Japan pavilion. The experience will feature a “thoughtfully curated menu of Japanese cuisine” that includes an appetizer, traditional sashimi, an “extensive selection of sushi,” and an exclusive dessert and certain beverages that are ONLY available with this package.

Prices are $149.50 (including tax & gratuity) per adult (10+) and $74.70 (including tax & gratuity) per child (ages 3-9), but may vary by date or other factors.

Reservations for this experience will be available to book on August 27th, 2026.

IS AN EPCOT FIREWORKS DINING PACKAGE RIGHT FOR YOU?

Whether a fireworks dining package is right for you will depend on several things:

- Were you planning to eat at one of these restaurants already?
- Do the menu options and prices work for you?
- Do you like the idea of having a “reserved” table with fireworks viewing, or are you willing to walk around World Showcase, find a good viewing spot, and wait for the fireworks?
- Is your money better spent on a different restaurant, other food, or a different experience?

There’s a lot to consider, and only you know what’s best for you and your group!

FIREWORKS CRUISES

Want a unique view of the fireworks and a little bit of space away from the crowds? While it's more of a snack experience rather than a full dining experience, an EPCOT Fireworks Cruise is certainly a unique way to end your day with a bang.

You'll get the opportunity to watch the nighttime fireworks show at EPCOT from right on the water! For this experience, you'll charter a private watercraft that is led by a captain. The cruise includes assorted snacks and soft drinks. This is a pricey option starting at $499 (plus tax, prices vary by date), but each boat seats up to 10 guests, so it could work out if you've got a larger group. Cruises leave from the Bayside Marina at the nearby Yacht and Beach Club Resorts.

FIREWORKS EXPERIENCE AT GEO-82

If you want to get a special view of the EPCOT fireworks and you're traveling with adults ages 21+, you may want to check out GEO-82's Fireworks Experience.

This experience is held in the NEW adults-only lounge located within the structure that's home to Spaceship Earth.

You'll get a private table near the window, plus champagne selected by the sommeliers at Disney (or some event-exclusive cocktails if you prefer that), a tasting tower with savory light bites, and a selection of sweet treats.

The cost is $179 per person, plus tax and gratuity. You can make reservations through the Disney World website.

Is it worth it? That depends on what you're looking for! It's definitely pricey, you don't get the same experience as when you watch the show up close and personal, you can just make a regular reservation at GEO-82 around fireworks time and chance your view, and it is an adults-only (21+) experience. But if you want a unique and newer way to see the EPCOT fireworks, it might be worth looking into.

LA CAVA EXPERIENCE

If you love tequila, LISTEN UP! You can immersive yourself in the unique flavors of some agave spirits with a certified Tequila Ambassador as your guide through the “La Cava Experience” from the folks behind La Cava del Tequila in the Mexico Pavilion.

Through this experience, you’ll get to sip on rare and unique spirits, some of which are exclusive to the experience and not available anywhere else in the world.

It’s a bit on the pricey side (around $180 per person, plus tax – subject to change, of course), but it might be THE thing for you if you want to try some of the best tequila in the world.

The event is held inside La Hacienda de San Angel.

You can book via the Disney World website or the My Disney Experience app.

DISNEY AFTER HOURS

Disney World After Hours events are separately ticketed experiences (meaning you'll need to buy a specific ticket for the event to attend) that take place on select nights after the parks have closed.

This event will be available in EPCOT on select nights from January through September 2026.

The big draw of these events is their limited capacity, which means you can experience various EPCOT rides with minimal to no wait.

But your ticket ALSO comes with complimentary snacks! Indulge in some classic ice cream novelties (like Mickey's Premium Ice Cream bars), popcorn, and select bottled beverages at snack carts throughout the park.

The event lasts 3 hours, and tickets range from $155 to $179 per person (discounts available for Annual Passholders and Disney Vacation Club Members).

EPCOT FESTIVALS

What really makes EPCOT stand out when it comes to dining is the 4 festivals that take place each year. All of these festivals feature internationally inspired snack-sized dishes and drinks at booths all around World Showcase. Exploring and sampling all the World Showcase treats can be a fun way to experience everything EPCOT has to offer. Note: We're seeing festival food booths go cashless, so be prepared to pay with a credit card, debit card, mobile payment, or Disney Gift Card..

FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

The EPCOT International Festival of the Arts celebrates art in 3 main forms – culinary, visual, and performing arts. You can expect lots of colorful decorations, performances from Broadway stars, and beautiful FOOD offered at various kiosks throughout the park. This takes place in the early part of the year – dates for 2026 were January 16th-February 23rd. 2027 dates are pending.

FLOWER & GARDEN

The EPCOT International Flower & Garden Festival celebrates flowers and plants in all kinds of special ways. Expect huge and intricately designed topiaries, concert performances from internationally recognized artists, and FOOD and drinks offered at various kiosks. This festival typically takes place in the springtime – dates for 2026 were March 4th-June 1st. 2027 dates are pending.

FOOD & WINE

The EPCOT International Food & Wine Festival is the one that started them all and is one of the most popular festivals in the park. Expect food and wine at various kiosks, concert performances from internationally recognized artists, and much more. This usually takes place in late summer and early fall – the dates for 2026 are August 27th-November 21st

FESTIVAL OF THE HOLIDAYS

Finally, the EPCOT International Festival of the Holidays celebrates holiday traditions from around the world. Expect festive decorations, holiday storytellers, a hugely popular concert experience all about Christmas, and plenty of holiday-themed eats. This runs from after Thanksgiving to just before New Year's Eve. The dates for 2026 are November 27th-December 30th.

FESTIVAL SPECIFIC DINING PACKAGES

EPCOT hosts a variety of concerts and performances for each festival it hosts throughout the year. To ensure you get a good seat for a performance, consider booking a dining package! This includes your meal & guaranteed seat at one of the concerts that day. Prices vary based on meal and restaurant. Here's a brief look at what to expect:

FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

At the EPCOT International Festival of the Arts, the Disney on Broadway Concert Series Dining Package will help you get a great seat to the performances of some fantastic Broadway stars. Names we've seen in the past have included Kissy Simmons ("Lion King") and Mandy Gonzalez ("Aida").

FLOWER & GARDEN FESTIVAL

At the EPCOT International Flower & Garden Festival, the Garden Rocks Dining Package gives you reserved seating for some seriously iconic musical acts. Names we've seen in the past have included Simple Plan and Sister Hazel.

FESTIVAL OF THE HOLIDAYS

The Candlelight Processional is a Festival of the Holidays tradition that features a GIANT choir and a celebrity narrator who tells the Christmas story. Dining Packages are available for each of these special concerts. Some celebrity narrators we've seen in the past include Jodi Benson and Jordan Fisher.

FESTIVAL SPECIFIC DINING PACKAGES CONTINUED

FOOD & WINE FESTIVAL

You'll find a similar Dining Package experience with the Eat to the Beat Concert Series Dining Packages during the EPCOT International Food & Wine Festival. Performers we've seen in the past have included Boyz II Men and Smash Mouth.

Be on the lookout for other potential special dining experiences during the Festival, like a Parisian Breakfast buffet at Chefs de France. This is typically only available on limited days during the festival. It usually features things like French pastries (think: croissants, pain au chocolat, etc.) along with freshly baked baguettes, cheese, charcuterie, smoked salmon, and fresh fruit.

DISNEY DINING PLAN TIPS & TRICKS

DINING PLAN TIPS & TRICKS

So you're thinking about using the Disney Dining Plan at EPCOT? Great! There are some things you might want to consider, and we'll break it down for you here.

First, a bit of basic information. The Disney Dining Plan is a way to basically pre-pay for all or most of your meals ahead of your trip. Plans are an optional add-on to your vacation. If you decide to pay for the Dining Plan, you'll receive a certain number of credits that you can then use at certain participating restaurants in Disney World to get your food.

This is such an important topic that we have an entire Guide for it – Disney Dining Plan: The DFB Guide to Maximizing the DDP – if you'd like to explore it in more detail.

For now, let's chat about some important things to know about the Disney Dining Plan, specifically when it comes to dining in EPCOT.

MAXIMIZE YOUR CREDITS

Here are a few at-a-glance options for maximizing your credits in EPCOT! THESE are some of the spots you'll want to consider visiting to get the most bang for your buck when it comes to redeeming those credits for meals.

BREAKFAST

- Quick Service: Les Halles Boulangerie-Patisserie (France Pavilion)
- Table Service: Garden Grill (Character meal, Family Style), Akershus Royal Banquet Hall (Character meal, Family-style)

LUNCH/DINNER

- Quick Service: Regal Eagle Smokehouse (American Adventure)
- Table Service: Via Napoli (Italy Pavilion), Garden Grill (World Nature), La Hacienda de San Angel (Mexico Pavilion), Biergarten (Germany Pavilion)

SNACK CREDIT

- Skolebrød (School Bread) or Cinnamon Roll with Orange Icing at Kringla Og Bakeri (Norway Pavilion)
- Kakigori (regular size) at Kabuki Cafe (Japan Pavilion)
- Caramel Popcorn or Cookie Sandwich at Karamell Kuche (Germany Pavilion)
- Gelato scoop (single or double typically qualifies as a snack credit but check during your visit) or Macaron Sandwich at L'Artisan de Glaces (France Pavilion)
- Red Berries Crêpe at Crêpes À Emporter (France Pavilion)
- Qualifying item from a festival booth
- Quiche Lorraine or a variety of other qualifying snacks at Les Halles Boulangerie-Patisserie (France Pavilion)
- Pretzel Nuggets with Beer Cheese at Block & Hans (American Adventure Pavilion)

TABLE SERVICE

Not all EPCOT Table Service restaurants are created equally when it comes to the Disney Dining Plan. Importantly, some Table Service restaurants require 2 credits per person instead of 1. That can depend not just on the restaurant you're going to, but what meal you'll be eating there.

In EPCOT, you'll have to use 2 Table Service credits per person at Akershus Royal Banquet Hall at lunch and dinner. However, if you opt for breakfast there, you only have to use 1 Table Service credit per person.

You'll also need to use 2 Table Service credits per person at Le Cellier Steakhouse.

By comparison, the German buffet at Biergarten and the family-style character meal at Garden Grill are only 1 Table Service credit for all meals.

At some places, the meal that qualifies for the Dining Plan might be unique. For example, at Shiki-Sai: Sushi Izakaya in the Japan Pavilion, those using the Dining Plan choose one from 2 prix-fixe meals for 1 Table Service credit. These can be a good value. At Via Napoli in the Italy Pavilion, you can get certain items for 1 credit, but you could also opt to use 2 or 3 credits to get a larger pizza size that can be shared with the group.

At some places, the Dining Plan may only be accepted for certain meal times (only at dinner, for example).

Some spots in EPCOT do not accept the Dining Plan at all, such as Monsieur Paul, Space 220, Takumi-Tei, and GEO-82.

QUICK SERVICE

The Dining Plan is accepted at many of the Quick Service locations throughout the park.

Unlike Magic Kingdom, EPCOT serves alcohol at many of its Quick Service restaurant locations. With the Disney Dining Plan, each Quick Service meal credit comes with a beverage, and those 21 and older can choose a single-serving mixed cocktail, beer, or wine.

Considering how expensive alcoholic drinks can be (especially when compared to something like a soda), that can help you get a TON of value out of 1 Quick Service meal credit. So, if you do drink alcohol, check to see what beverages qualify for the Dining Plan when ordering your meal to get the most out of your credits.

SNACK CREDITS

We have a very important note about snack credits, specifically for EPCOT, which is to check the EPCOT festival menus for items that are eligible for Dining Plan Snack Credits.

Four festivals occur in EPCOT each year. The best way to experience the tasty treats each festival has to offer is by eating your way through the various food kiosks set up throughout the park.

Various items at the kiosks (including some that are quite expensive or especially delicious) may count as a snack credit, giving you a way to use your credits for something unique, fun, and (potentially) of high value.

That's just the TIP of the iceberg! The BEST way to make sure you've got all the most up-to-date information is with our Disney Dining Plan Guide Book – check it out here!

DFB TOP PICKS

DFB TOP PICKS

EPCOT is often regarded as the park for foodies and those who want to enjoy a few alcoholic beverages alongside their experience. And EPCOT has a wide variety of food and drinks to choose from. So, where do you start? How do you make sure you're getting the BEST of the BEST EPCOT has to offer?

Well, everyone's tastes will differ. What we love might not exactly be your cup of tea – and what you love might not be another guest's favorite.

That's the beauty of life and your unique taste buds! And – full disclaimer – just because we don't include a specific treat on this list doesn't mean it isn't worth checking out.

BUT if you want to know what our top picks are here at DFB - we've got them all right here!

DFB TOP PICKS
BEST TABLE SERVICE (PAGE 1 OF 2)

GARDEN GRILL RESTAURANT

What's good about it: Family-style eats that are straightforward but consistently tasty, character appearances by Mickey and friends, views into the Living with the Land ride.

Additional considerations: Not the most adventurous eats; can be time-consuming.

ROSE & CROWN DINING ROOM

What's good about it: British eats, some traditional and some more adventurous options, cozy atmosphere.

Additional considerations: Small menu, can get fish & chips for WAY cheaper at the nearby Quick Service.

LE CELLIER STEAKHOUSE

What's good about it: Great for date night, good service, top-tier steaks, and solid other eats.

Additional considerations: EXPENSIVE, not the best for families with smaller kids, heavy portions.

VIA NAPOLI RISTORANTE E PIZZERIA

What's good about it: Fantastic pizza, including some more unique flavors and some bigger pizza options so you can share with the whole group.

Additional considerations: Pizza can be pricey, not really for those who don't like Italian food.

DFB TOP PICKS
BEST TABLE SERVICE

SHIKI-SAI: SUSHI-IZAKAYA

What's good about it: Nice atmosphere with great views into EPCOT, plenty of small plates to pick from and share with a group, lots of Japanese eats to try, items change seasonally

Additional considerations: Might be harder for super picky eaters; some dishes are more filling while others are a little more on the smaller side and meant to be shared

TAKUMI-TEI – BEST FANCY/CELEBRATION MEAL

What's good about it: Unique, flavorful, and adventurous Japanese eats; wonderful service; overall, a special experience.

Additional considerations: extremely pricey, not for those who want "safe" eats.

DFB TOP PICKS

BEST SWEET SNACKS (PAGE 1 OF 2)

MOST THINGS FROM
Karamell Kuche

DESSERT OF CHOICE
Sunshine Seasons

PRETZEL BREAD PUDDING
Sommerfest

KAKIGORI
Kabuki Cafe

RED BERRIES OR OTHER SWEET CREPE

BEST SAVORY SNACKS

POUTINE
La Poutinerie

GUACAMOLE
Choza de Margarita

PRETZEL NUGGETS
Block & Hans

CHIPS & QUESO
La Cava del Tequila

MACARONI & CHEESE
Regal Eagle Smokehouse

DFB TOP PICKS
BEST FOR BIG GROUPS

TABLE SERICE: BIERGARTEN

What's good about it: Buffet with authentic German eats, LOTS of choices, family-style tables with plenty of seating for big groups, lively entertainment.

Additional considerations: It can be a little pricey, is a longer meal, might be a bit tough for super picky eaters, and entertainment makes it noisy.

QUICK SERVICE: CONNECTIONS EATERY

What's good about it: Lots of indoor seating, a good variety of menu options to please the whole group – some are a little more standard while others have some more unique flavors.

Additional considerations: There are more unique eats throughout World Showcase, but seating at many of those restaurants tends to be limited or smaller, and their menus may be more limited.

QUICK SERVICE: SUNSHINE SEASONS

What's good about it: Plenty of indoor seating, a good variety of menu options to please the whole group – mostly fairly "safe" eats with a few more fun things thrown in there.

Additional considerations: You'll find much more unique and adventurous eats throughout World Showcase.

DFB TOP PICKS

BEST QUICK BREAKFAST

PASTRIES, QUICHE, AND MORE

Les Halles Boulangerie-Patisserie

DRINKING AROUND THE WORLD

DRINKING AROUND THE WORLD

Drinking Around the World at EPCOT is a fan-favorite challenge where guests sip their way through every country in World Showcase. It's part bar crawl, part cultural adventure – and yes, you can totally join in with non-alcoholic drinks, too.

Visiting during a festival? Even better! You can add limited-time sips from the food booths to your route for a truly epic tasting tour.

Just remember: stay hydrated, grab some snacks, pace yourself, and consider sharing drinks to try more without overdoing it. Disney offers free transportation around the resort, and rideshares are always an option if you need a safe ride back.

These are just some of our favorite drinks, but the world is full of tasty surprises. Sip smart, snack often, and have fun!

MORE DFB RESOURCES

MORE DFB GUIDES

While writing our Disney Food Blog Guide to Walt Disney World Dining e-Book, we confirmed just how much food information there is to share about Disney theme parks and Resorts! So we've expanded our line of e-Books over the years to cover important details even more thoroughly. Through this guide series, we've been able to focus more in-depth on smaller topics.

Check out DFBStore.com for Snack Guides that will lead you to all of the best snacks in the Disney World theme parks.
We've got guides for:

- Magic Kingdom Snacks
- EPCOT Snacks
- Animal Kingdom Snacks, and
- Hollywood Studios Snacks

We also offer specialized guides about:

- The EPCOT International Food & Wine Festival
- The EPCOT International Flower & Garden Festival
- The EPCOT International Festival of the Arts
- Halloween at Disney World: DFB's Spooktacular Guide
- Holidays at Disney World: DFB's Merriest Guide
- The DFB Guide to Maximizing the Disney Dining Plan

WE SINCERELY THANK YOU

For all of your support. We couldn't do this without YOU!

THANK YOU

THANK YOU

Thank you for buying our DFB Guide to Disney World Dining and checking out our EPCOT Guide.

Working on this Guide is a true joy and labor of love for the entire DFB Team. If we've helped even one person have a great meal, snack, or dining experience in Disney World, it's been well worth it!

For more information about dining at Disney World, be sure to take a look at the other books in our Guide to Walt Disney World Dining (all included in your purchase!). We have a 101 book FULL of useful tips and tricks, and books dedicated to dining in each of the theme parks, Disney Springs, the water parks, and the hotels.

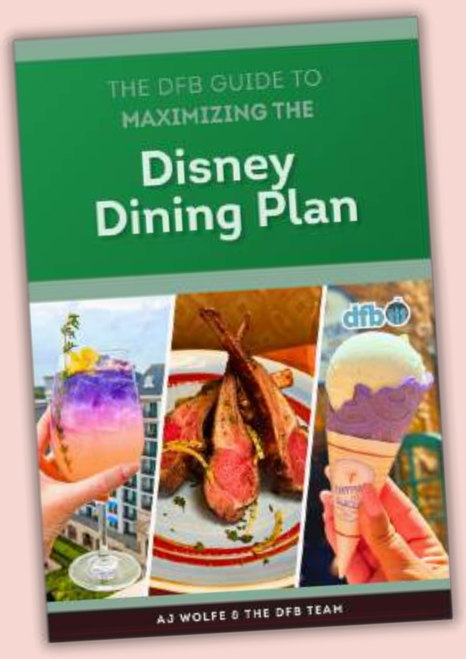

If you have any questions about things you've read in this Guide, find any errors in the Guide, would like to see specific information added, or have any other feedback, please contact us at book_updates@disneyfoodblog.com.

Thank you for reading! Have a wonderful and safe visit to Disney World.
