HOLLYWOOD STUDIOS– RESTAURANT OVERVIEW

Welcome to the "Hollywood that never was – and always will be." As a tribute to the Golden Age of Hollywood, Disney's Hollywood Studios boasts eating establishments that are uniquely themed.

Although this park might be best known for exciting roller coasters and immersive lands, that doesn't mean you should sleep on the eats here! At the very least, you'll need some energy to get you from Star Wars: Rise of the Resistance to The Twilight Zone Tower of Terror to Slinky Dog Dash...you get the picture!

As you plan your dining, consider what kind of theming appeals most to your family. Would you like to partake in kid-friendly eats in Toy Story Land with a Lunch Box Tart from Woody's Lunch Box? Or perhaps grab some iconic items – like Blue Milk – in Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge?

This park is undergoing massive transformations, so that may mean new construction walls and, hopefully, new eats & treats on the horizon.

Over the years, we've seen some exciting additions made to the dining here. So let's take a look at each restaurant to see which might fit you and your group best.

Now, on with the show!

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

There is a LOT of information about Disney food and dining options out there, but we've broken down some of the key details you need to know to make the best dining choices for your group. So, let's dive in!

First, you'll notice that we have a smattering of symbols at the top of the restaurant and other dining location pages. These are quick indicators of what you need to know. Most of them are self-explanatory, but we'll give you a rapid rundown of them.

DISNEY DINING PLAN ACCEPTED

- This indicates that the restaurant accepts credits from the Disney Dining Plan. IMPORTANT: The location might accept Snack Credits, Table Service credits, Quick Service credits, or a mix. This symbol only indicates that the location accepts some form of Disney Dining Plan credits, but you'll want to verify what type of credits are accepted, how many might be needed, and if there are any specific restrictions as to what dishes qualify.
- For an in-depth look at the Disney Dining Plan, check out our entire guide dedicated solely to the Dining Plan and how to make the best use of it.

DISNEY FOOD BLOG GUIDE insider TIPS

For locations accepting Mobile Order via the My Disney Experience app, use the app to create a sample mobile order. That can let you see what might qualify as a snack credit on the Disney Dining Plan.

DFB FAVORITE

We've eaten it ALL, and there are some spots we keep coming back to because they are just THAT GOOD! If you want to know our favorites, be on the lookout for this symbol. Keep in mind that while restaurants marked with this symbol might be our favorites, that doesn't mean that the other restaurants are bad. Other spots might have some seriously delicious eats, too! Or those other spots might have more standard eats that are just what your group needs. It's all about finding what suits you best. We've got our favorites, but we can't wait to hear all about yours.

CHARACTER MEAL

Dining with the characters is a unique and quintessential Disney World vacation experience.

MOBILE ORDER

Mobile Order allows you to pre-order and pre-pay for your food via the My Disney Experience app (which you'll use on your mobile device) for participating Quick Service restaurants around Disney World.

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

SERVICE TYPE

Disney offers three primary dining service types: Snack, Quick Service, and Table Service.

Snack: This is the category for those little carts or kiosks you'll find around the parks. Think popcorn or ice cream carts. Expect little to no dedicated seating near these. Plan to eat on a nearby bench or walk as you snack! Some may be cashless locations.

Quick Service: For these spots, you'll order at a counter (or on your mobile device), collect your food, and seat yourself. Think fast food, but Disney-fied. Seating can vary - sometimes there's ample seating (indoors and/or outdoors). Other times, seating is more limited. Look for our indications throughout this guide of what seating is like at each Quick Service spot.

Table Service: At these restaurants, you'll be seated for your meal and waited on by servers. This service type includes buffets, character meals, and fancy signature dining spots. Seating for these is typically indoors, though some spots may also offer outdoor seating.

DISCOUNTS

Some restaurants offer discounts if you are a member of a certain group. Those discounts tend to range from 10%-20%. There may be restrictions on the discounts in terms of what is included, whether it applies to only one meal time or another, and whether there are blockout dates. You can check the Disney World, Annual Passholder, Disney Vacation Club, and Disney Visa websites for details. The red tags indicate which groups get discounts at these locations:

DVC: Disney Vacation Club members

AP: Annual Passholders

DV: Disney Visa Cardholders

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

MEAL TIMES AVAILABLE

Not every location is open for every meal. We'll indicate which meal each location serves with these letters:

- B Breakfast (we'll use this for any spot that is open any time before 11 AM)
- L Lunch (we'll use this for any spot that is open between 11 AM and 4 PM)
- D Dinner (we'll use this for any spot that is open 4 PM and on)

Some restaurants may serve brunch (every day or only on select days) in addition to other meals (especially over at Disney Springs). We have not specifically noted brunch in these icons, but it's something to keep in mind. You'll typically find notes about brunch in our pro tips or menu highlights sections! You'll want to check the Disney World website or the My Disney Experience app for updates.

1. Advance Dining Reservation (ADR) Rating

   Dining reservations are strongly recommended for all Table Service locations at Disney World, and some are more challenging to secure than others. We've ranked each Table Service location from 1-5 with color coding, with 1 being the hardest to get and 5 being the easiest to get.

TABLE SERVICE

TABLE SERVICE RESTAURANTS

Table Service refers to a restaurant where you are seated by a host and served by waitstaff.

Table Service restaurants encompass a variety of dining options, including:

- Signature Dining (Fine Dining)
- Character Dining (Meet Disney Characters while you eat)
- Buffets/Family-Style meals (All you care to enjoy)
- More standard, plated options

Reservations are highly recommended for these spots and can fill up FAST for popular locations. Book reservations up to 60 days in advance via the My Disney Experience app or website. You can also call (407) 939-3463.

Be mindful of the cancelation policies. Most will charge a $10 per person fee if you cancel less than 2 hours in advance. However, some restaurants may have different cancelation policies. Look at those carefully when booking.

Table Service meals all feature indoor seating.

Since you'll have a server, it is customary to leave a gratuity, so factor that into your budget.

50'S PRIME TIME CAFE

DDP $$ AP DVC LD 3

50's Prime Time Cafe transports you to Mom's Kitchen of the past with its retro decor. The servers make the experience REALLY unique by acting like your long-lost "cousins." The antics are hilarious - they may heckle you for putting your elbows on the table or hassle you for not eating your veggies. The menu is full of classic American comfort food like fried chicken and mashed potatoes. If even watching the shenanigans will make you uncomfortable or you want adventurous eats, this may not be a good fit. But if you like comfort food, themed environments, and wild shenanigans, this is the place for you!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- American comfort food - plenty of choices, from soup & salad to pot roast, meatloaf, pot pie, & more
- You can get flavored Cokes here!
- Things we've enjoyed: Fried Chicken, Meatloaf, Peanut Butter & Jelly Milk Shake (the signature flavor & a BIG favorite), Dad's Favorite Chocolate-Peanut Butter Layered Cake

PRO TIPS

- Ask for one of the TV tables when you check in!
- Getting the "A Sampling of Mom's Favorite Recipes" dish is a good way to try a bit of several popular dishes.
- The antics here can be hilarious but a bit much for some. If you'd rather not partake in the fun, let your server know.

HOLLYWOOD & VINE

dp $$$$ AP DVC BLD 5

Hollywood & Vine is your character dining spot in Hollywood Studios. Meals here are themed to the season (Halloween, Christmas, etc.) and feature characters like Minnie, Mickey, and more friends. Food is served buffet-style with a large variety of fairly standard American eats. It isn't exactly cheap, and the food isn't that adventurous, but we were impressed by quite a few eats during a more recent visit. If you love characters and want a meal that's especially good for picky eaters, this could do the trick! It can get pretty loud, so consider coming at a less popular time.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Buffet items can change. Breakfast can include things like pastries, pancakes, waffles, and more. Lunch/dinner can include things like salad, salmon, smoked ham, and more.
- Things we've enjoyed: Herbed Focaccia, Olive-Oil Roasted Potatoes, Roasted Mushroom Farro Risotto, Blueberry-Lemon Tart, Candy Magic Bar, Tandoori Chicken, Flank Steak, Chili Aioli Salmon, Mexican Corn, Bread Pudding (Lunch and Dinner), Spicy Chicken & Doughnut, Bananas Fosters French Toast (Breakfast)

PRO TIPS

- Breakfast ($$$) is the cheaper option. Lunch and dinner are priced the same ($$$$). All meals, however, are 1 Table Service credit on the Disney Dining Plan.

The menu features contemporary American eats. The food here is expensive, but if you want a relaxing & upscale meal, this is a great spot with absolutely delicious dishes.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu features American cuisine, including things like a charcuterie board, escargot, shrimp cocktail, filet mignon, the famous Cobb salad, the iconic grapefruit cake, drink flights, and more

ROUNDUP RODEO BBQ

DDP $$$ AP DV DVC LD 3

Roundup Rodeo BBQ is COVERED in Toy Story theming. There are larger-than-life toys, displays, and more featuring your favorite Toy Story friends covering every inch! The food here is served family-style. It's American BBQ fare (smoked meats, sides like mac and cheese, dessert, and drinks). The food is good backyard BBQ food, but not terribly unique or mind-blowing. Ultimately, the star of the show is the theming. If you love Toy Story, have a big appetite, and like BBQ fare, consider stopping by!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- American BBQ served family-style – for one price, you'll get a variety of things like bread, salad, meats including ribs, brisket, sausage, and chicken, sides (like mac & cheese, corn on the cob, and baked beans), and dessert.
- There is a plant-based option.
- Things we've enjoyed: Prospector's Homemade Cheddar Biscuits with Sweet Pepper Jelly, Evil Dr. Smoked Ribs, Slinky Doooooooog's Mac & Cheese, Bo's Lemon and Blueberry Cheesecake

PRO TIPS

- IMPORTANT! This is NOT a character meal. The Toy Story characters do NOT appear for meet-and-greets during your meal.
- There are two main dining rooms – one themed to Jessie and one themed to Bo Peep – and each has a different vibe. Take time to explore all the details here!

SCI-FI DINE-IN THEATER RESTAURANT

$$ AP DV DVC LD 4

Sci-Fi Dine-In Theater is one of the MOST themed & immersive Disney restaurants. The space is designed to look like a retro drive-in theater. You'll even sit in replica convertible CARS while you dine! And there's a GIANT screen showing sci-fi mid-century movie clips under a twinkling night sky. The food may not be particularly adventurous and may not blow you away, but the atmosphere makes this a favorite for many. If you like American classic eats and a restaurant with a BIG entertainment factor, this is a great spot!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Classic American food with a few unique options thrown in
- Things we've enjoyed: Burgers, Plant Nachos, Oreo milkshake (available with Godiva Chocolate Liqueur), Cerulean Moon dessert
- Burgers reign supreme! We've liked the Beamed-Up and Classic American. Ask about the ever-changing Feature Film Burger.

PRO TIPS

- Very dark inside!
- Mostly car-themed seating, which splits parties into different rows, making it difficult to hold a conversation. You may also share a car with another group, so be aware. There are also some picnic tables in the back.
- Swap your fries for onion rings for a crunchy & delicious option!

QUICK SERVICE

QUICK SERVICE RESTAURANTS

Disney World Quick Service restaurants (also called Counter Service) offer fast, convenient, and less expensive meals without requiring reservations.

You can generally order in person at a counter or via Mobile Order through the My Disney Experience app (where available). Then, you'll receive your meal on a tray and take it to your seat.

Options can range from traditional fast food to more unique, high-quality dishes. Sometimes these locations are fairly small and serve a limited menu. Other times they're much larger with more seating and menu options – it just depends!

Seating is typically first-come, first-served. On hot and tiring Disney days, when folks can linger at indoor tables in AC for quite a while, you may have to wait a little bit for a seat in your desired area.

Some spots in Hollywood Studios have ample indoor seating, like ABC Commissary. Others have limited indoor seating or only offer outdoor seating, like Dockside Diner (limited seating + outdoors). In those cases, you may need to wait a bit longer for a table or plan to eat your food in another spot nearby with more seating.

ABC Commissary is themed to look like a movie studio cafeteria, complete with posters of and props from ABC shows. You might not expect much from ABC Commissary, but some of the dishes might really surprise you! You'll find American eats here, but the options are more unique than your typical burger and fries. Despite past mixed feelings about this spot, we've been really impressed by some of the newer items. If you want a quick but versatile selection of meals, this is the place for you!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- American cuisine with some more unique options than standard theme park eats – you may find things like shrimp or pork carnitas tacos, a Mediterranean salad, a chicken club sandwich, plant-based options, and more
- Things we've enjoyed: Pork Carnitas Tacos, Shrimp Tacos, Buffalo Grilled Cheese Sandwich (though we've had mixed experiences with it), Strawberry Lemon Cheesecake (when available)

PRO TIPS

- There is PLENTY of air-conditioned seating indoors, and limited tables outside.
- The idea behind this spot is that you're on the production team for a project at the studio and you're taking a break from showbiz to grab lunch with your fellow workers.

Backlot Express is designed to make you feel like you're in a Hollywood backlot full of props and backdrops. If you want incredibly exciting or unique eats, you may want to look elsewhere. But if you've got picky eaters in the group or are looking for a spot with enough variety to satisfy the whole group, consider eating here!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Things we've enjoyed: Smoked BBQ Pulled Pork Burger, Teriyaki Chicken Bowl, Frozen Watermelon Vodka Lemonade, Honey Buffalo Chicken Strips with Ranch, Cuban Sandwich, Teriyaki Tofu Bowl
- Wookiee Cookie has seen some changes over the years that we haven't always loved, but it's still a fun and unique treat.

OUTDOOR SEATING

Named after a California weather phenomenon, the eats at Catalina Eddie's mainly consist of basic pizzas (the circular, puffy kind), a meatball sub, pasta, garlic bread, cannoli, and a classic Caesar salad. The food here is...average. The eats are not particularly exciting, but they will likely appeal to kiddos and those wanting a basic and safe meal. This is probably not going to be the best meal you could have at Disney World, but if you want fast eats, this could fit the bill.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The pizza here comes with a side, making it a decent portion size for adults.
- The Toffee and Coconut Blondie that used to be served here was a BIG favorite of ours. It's vanished from the menu, but be sure to snag one if it returns during your visit.
- We were surprised by how much we enjoyed the Alfredo Basil Chicken Pasta here.

PRO TIPS

- Outdoor seating only. Many tables are covered by an overhead pergola or table umbrellas.
- This restaurant is part of the Sunset Ranch Market, so seating is shared with other restaurants nearby. During peak meal times you'll find this area gets quite busy.
- Sometimes seasonal items pop up that can provide some fun finds.

This Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge restaurant serves up unique eats in a spot themed to look like a working hangar bay – hence the name “Docking Bay 7 Food & Cargo”! The food here is more unique than your standard burger and fries – but you’ll also find a few “safer” eats, particularly in the form of crispy chicken and mac and cheese. It’s on the pricier side for quick eats, but if you want more adventurous food in a Star Wars-themed space, this could be a good choice.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- More unique quick eats featuring beef, chicken, pork, plant-based options, and more (you may find things like “fried chicken tip yip” – aka crispy chicken, or smoked Kaadu pork ribs – aka pork ribs with a tangy BBQ sauce)
- We’re fans of the Mac and Cheese – consider grabbing it as your side
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Pirjanad Hot Chicken Tip Yip, Ronto Wrap (served here after 3 PM)
- The Sweet and Spicy Puffer Pig Pasta can be a good option if you want something spicy and filling!

PRO TIPS

- Proprietor Chef Strono “Cookie” Tuggs runs the kitchen, having honed his skills in the kitchen of Maz Kanata.
- This spot can get busy, and the atmosphere is a little hectic. Finding a table inside can be a challenge at times, but there’s outdoor seating too.

Looking for Dockside Diner? Search for the rustic "S.S. Down the Hatch" ship on Echo Lake. It's themed in a way to pay homage to 1950s "California-Crazy architecture." If your ideal meal consists of hot dogs, macaroni and cheese, and milkshakes, this restaurant is good for a fast bite. Some of the hot dog creations are a bit more unique, but most of the eats aren't all that memorable. It's generally a middle-of-the-road spot in terms of flavor (with some occasional standouts!) but reliable enough to fill your belly if you need something quick!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu features unique hot dog creations, along with a basic hot dog, house-made chips, cheese sauce, milkshakes, and drinks (alcoholic and non-alcoholic).
- Offerings can change frequently.
- Things we've enjoyed: Seasonal Milkshakes, Bacon Macaroni & Cheese Hot Dog, Chocolate Shake with Baileys Irish Cream and Kahlúa Liqueur, Cheesy Garlic Pretzel Dog, Garlic Cheese Sauce, Seashore Lemonade
- Dirt Cup Shake is basic but fun for kids and those desperately in need of a chocolate fix

KIOSKS & SNACKS

KIOSKS & SNACKS

You're usually not far from a snack at Disney World, and you don't need to look too hard to find one (or seven!).

Disney World's snack kiosks are a key part of the park experience, offering iconic treats, seasonal specials, and unique flavors.

These kiosks are typically small stands or carts, providing quick & delicious items on the go. Some are famous for must-try Disney snacks, others may serve up basics, and some serve as hidden gems with unique offerings.

In terms of seating, you may find a nearby bench or ledge to sit on as you savor your snack. But you may find that many folks simply enjoy their snack as they stroll to the next attraction.

If you need a seat, consider grabbing your snack and hopping into a Quick Service restaurant that has ample seating. You can generally take your popcorn or pretzel into a Quick Service spot to enjoy some AC while you nibble – just be conscientious of the diners around you who also need a table for their meal.

Some snack spots may be cashless and may only accept credit cards, Disney gift cards, or mobile payments, so keep that in mind.

FØØD BY SWEDISH CHEF

$ SNACK LD

This Muppets-themed food truck-like kiosk is located right next to Rock ‘n’ Roller Coaster Starring The Muppets, and it features some fun & quick bites! You’ll find basic snacks – like churros, nachos, and frozen treats. A big draw is the mini corn dogs. There are also some alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks here. It doesn’t have the most inventive menu, but sometimes simple theme park food hits the spot. If you’re looking for those classic mini corn dogs and some Muppets-themed drinks that are refreshing, this can be a good place to visit!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Frozen treats can include slushes, soft-serve waffle cones, and floats.
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Mini Corn Dogs (these tasted just like the ones from Casey’s Corner in Magic Kingdom!), Mayhem Soft-Serve Float (let the ice cream melt and then stir it together to get the best sip!), the Pink Le-moi-nade (refreshing!), Pond Water Limeade (delightfully sour)
- Churro Drumstick has fun toppings, but the churro itself leaves much to be desired. The Wocka Wocking Nachos are good, but we wish there were more of the toppings.

PRO TIPS

- There isn’t a dedicated seating area or any shaded cover, so grab your bites on the go. Grab a seat at the nearby Sunset Ranch Market area closer to Tower of Terror.
- Check out the souvenir cups available with select drinks!
- We suggest stopping here AFTER (not before) a ride on Rock ‘n’ Roller Coaster.

HOLLYWOOD STUDIOS GELATO CART

$ SNACK LD

If you're a fan of gelato and want a cool treat, look for this Gelato Cart (run by Disney Springs' Vivoli il Gelato). Most recently, we've seen it next to Red Carpet Dreams/across from the Sci-Fi Dine-In Theater Restaurant. But it could move to another spot. You'll usually find a few different flavors of gelato here, along with seasonal options. The treats aren't particularly unique, but it's a sweet spot for cooling off in the Florida heat!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

$ SNACK LD

Kat Saka's Kettle transforms everyone's favorite grain into tasty snacks! Black Spire Outpost – the village on the planet of Batuu where Galaxy's Edge is set – serves up flavored popcorn at Kat Saka's Kettle in salty or sweet and spicy varieties. This spot is also home to the popular Cold Brew Black Caf – it's a cold brew coffee topped with sweet cream cheese and chocolate puffs. MILK STAND

$ SNACK LD

Milk Stand is located in the First Order area of the Outpost in Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge. It serves up two iconic items: Blue Milk and Green Milk. Both milks are a dairy-free combination of coconut and rice milks. Green has a bit of a citrus twist added, while Blue is a tropical fruit combo. These are divisive – some fans enjoy them, while others detest them. Still, if you're a Star Wars fan, drinking one or both of these might be a must-do!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- You can try some of our hacks to make these drinks more unique – like layering the 2 milks together or melting cotton candy into them!
- Boozy options available for those 21+.
- The Pink Milk is a lighter, fruity variation that's especially fun for kids. There's also an alcoholic pink milk that's smoother and less sweet.
- The Tenoo Swirl Crunchies Cereal is good for those who love sweet drinks and want to make their Blue Milk experience a little more unique.

PRO TIPS

- Look for souvenir sippers here, like the Bubo Wamba Family Farms Souvenir Sipper.
- Check for limited-time offerings here, too. The Kessel Run Rations are one of the options we've seen – we'd consider getting those again and again (when available)!
- The Kerkoiden Blue Cake is another option we've tried. It's easy to eat and fun, but messy!

If you need a Quick Snack, the Popcorn and Snacks kiosk in Toy Story Land might be just what you're looking for. This spot opened in early 2026 and features lots of classic Disney snacks, but the big draw here is the Pizza Planet Spring Rolls! These taste VERY similar (if not nearly identical) to the popular pizza spring rolls served in Magic Kingdom. STAR WARS: GALAXY'S EDGE DROID DRINK CART

$ SNACK LD

If you want a soft drink or water in a UNIQUE, Star Wars-themed bottle, this is the place to go. This little drink cart has a very limited menu, and the drinks are PRICEY considering their size, but you're really paying for the special bottle (which can make a fun souvenir)!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Most of the small soda bottles here are designed to look like thermal detonators, and they have unique Star Wars-themed lettering on them.
- The water bottles don't look like thermal detonators but do have some Star Wars-themed designs.

BARS & LOUNGES

BARS & LOUNGES

If you're looking for a spot to grab a drink to cool down in the middle of your park day, search for a bar or lounge that might be near you.

Some of these are more elaborate and offer more options (including small plates of food or offerings from an attached restaurant's menu), while others are smaller and feature more limited menus focused entirely on drinks.

Some may technically be considered a Table Service location (meaning you'll sit at a table, have a server take your order, and enjoy your drink while lounging around). Others may have some seating but offer drinks in a quicker fashion, and some might be purely grab-and-go locations.

Some may also have a full bar available, where you can get more customized drinks, while other spots may serve mainly pre-mixed drink options.

Keep in mind that while most of these locations are focused on alcoholic options, you may find some non-alcoholic drinks too.

It all depends! There's a lot out there to check out!

In the pages to follow, we'll highlight some locations where you can maximize the use of your Disney Dining credits. These locations are recommended for their accessible, delicious menus and some options that can be quite a bargain, given the serving sizes and prices.

MAXIMIZE YOUR CREDITS

When on the Disney Dining Plan, one thing you'll want to think about is using your credits in places/for items that'll really give you the best value. Here are a few at-a-glance options to maximize your credits in Hollywood Studios!

BREAKFAST:

- Quick Service: Woody's Lunch Box, Ronto Roasters
- Table Service: Hollywood & Vine (Character Buffet)

LUNCH/DINNER:

- Quick Service: Backlot Express, Docking Bay 7
- Table Service: 50's Prime Time Cafe, Roundup Rodeo BBQ

SNACK CREDITS:

- Jack-Jack's Num Num Cookie at Market or Neighborhood Bakery
- Funnel Cakes at Epic Eats
- Sweet Cream or Jalapeno Cheese Pretzel at Pretzel Palooza or Market
- Mickey Brownie Sundae or Ice Cream Cone at Hollywood Scoops
- Bouncin' Mini Churros at Ice Cold Hydraulics
- Any size Starbucks drink at Trolley Car Cafe
- Blue or Green Milk, or Tenoo Swirl Crunchies Cereal, at the Milk Stand
- Carrot Cake Whoopie Pie at Trolley Car Cafe

TABLE SERVICE

You can have one of the best meals in Hollywood Studios at the Hollywood Brown Derby – the park's only Signature restaurant. But this glamorous meal comes at a price, requiring TWO Table Service meal credits per person. All other Table Service restaurants in Hollywood Studios only require one.

Some feel that using those two credits for a meal at the Brown Derby is well worth it, but it is something to keep in mind as you make your dining decisions.

By comparison, meals at Hollywood & Vine – a buffet featuring Disney characters – are only 1 Table Service credit per person. But the food quality (and vibe) is very different than what you'll find at the Brown Derby.

Roundup Rodeo BBQ is also only 1 Table Service credit, and food is served family-style, so you can really fill up.

50s Prime Time Cafe offers plated meals, but given the higher prices of some options ($25-$32), it can be a good use of a single Table Service credit. It's all about focusing on what's important to and best for you!

QUICK SERVICE

To make the most of your Quick Service credits, having a large appetite and ordering an alcoholic beverage or specialty drink can help.

Each Quick Service meal credit on the Dining Plan comes with a drink – those 21+ can choose a single-serving mixed cocktail, beer, or wine. Considering how expensive alcoholic drinks can be, ordering an alcoholic drink can help you get more value out of your meal credit.

Check which beverages qualify for the Dining Plan when ordering your meal to maximize your credit use.

Keep in mind that those with lighter appetites who typically opt for salads or kids' meals may not find the dollar-for-dollar value of the Dining Plan here, but that doesn't mean they can't still enjoy the convenience of it.

We recommend ABC Commissary, Backlot Express, Docking Bay 7, and Woody's Lunch Box.

DFB TOP PICKS

DFB TOP PICKS

Hollywood Studios is an interesting park when it comes to food. You'll find some of the most immersive restaurants here – dine in a convertible car under a starry night sky, get heckled by your "cousins" while watching retro TVs, step into a space bar, or sit inside a backlot storage area surrounded by props, costumes, and scenery!

Some of the food itself, however, might not necessarily blow you away. There are delicious (and unique!) eats in this park – you just have to know where to find them!

So what should you consider trying? We've got a list to help.

But first, a quick disclaimer! Everyone's tastes will differ. What we love might not be your favorite – and what you love might be another person's least favorite snack.

Just because we don't include a specific treat on this list doesn't mean it isn't worth checking out. But if you want to know what our top picks are for Hollywood Studios, let's dive in.

DFB TOP PICKS

BEST TABLE SERVICE

THE HOLLYWOOD BROWN DERBY

What's good about it: One of the most delicious and historic dining experiences in Disney World, home to the FAMOUS Cobb salad and iconic grapefruit cake, fantastic old Hollywood vibes, and consistent top-notch gourmet eats.

Additional considerations: It's pricey and not always great for a light meal in between thrill rides.

50S PRIME TIME CAFE

What's good about it: Homestyle American classics, fun and quirky atmosphere, servers put on a great show with hilarious shenanigans, and 1950s theming is immersive and fun.

Additional considerations: The shenanigans can be too much for some, and the eats are good but not terribly adventurous or unique.

ROUNDUP RODEO BBQ

What's good about it: Incredibly detailed Toy Story theming, an all-you-care-to-eat family-style meal that'll fill you up, and cheddar biscuits that are so good you have to be careful not to fill up before the meal comes.

Additional considerations: There are no character appearances, it's a heavy meal, and it's not great if you don't like barbecue.

SCI FI DINE IN

What's good about it: An air-conditioned time warp where you slide into 1950s car booths, face a drive-in screen, and munch burgers, fries, and thick shakes while campy B-movie clips and trailers roll.

Additional considerations: Seating faces forward. Great for screen time; not great for big group conversation or celebratory toasts.

BEST FOR BIG GROUPS

TABLE SERVICE: ROUNDUP RODEO BBQ

What's good about it: Family-style, all-you-care-to-enjoy, plenty to fill you up, a good variety of options, great theming, lots of indoor seating.

Additional considerations: Food quality is about the same as the best backyard barbecue your family may make at home; there are NO character appearances, and the food isn't all that unique.

TABLE SERVICE HONORABLE MENTION: HOLLYWOOD & VINE

What's good about it: Buffet, character meal, plenty of safe options for everyone to pick from.

Additional considerations: Not the most adventurous or unique eats.

QUICK SERVICE: ABC COMMISSARY OR BACKLOT EXPRESS

What's good about them: Both have plenty of seating, and the menus offer a good variety of eats to feed the whole group. For more unique eats, head to ABC Commissary. For your more standard chicken and burgers, consider Backlot Express.
